Herb Schwaderer Takes Leave From Highway Post

One of the familiar figures in state highway maintenance in this part of Nebraska since 1919, is taking "an extended leave of absence" is announced at Plattsmouth, his headquarters.

The leave is at the request of Mr. Schwaderer, Fred Smith, district highway department engineer, announced at Nebraska City Monday.

Replacing Schwaderer in this area will be L. W. Flisk of Auburn, another veteran highway official.

The area served by Mr. Schwaderer has been most of Cass County, most of Otoe County and part of Nemaha county.

Mr. Schwaderer started work for the highway department as project engineer on the Plattsmouth to Nebraska City highway in 1919. He stayed on to maintain the roads. In 1928 the county-state job was divided and since then the veteran has been devoted to the state work with occasionally aiding the counties when needed.
