'Witnesses' Convention Reported

Twelve of Jehovah's Witnesses from Plattsmouth have just returned from their regional convention in Fremont, Francis Uhe, local presiding minister, reported there were over 1,000 ministers from Nebraska in attendance.

Rutherford G. Sakotos, district supervisor from New York, laid emphasis on home Bible study groups. He said, "It is in the home that most Bible teachings are accomplished. The first place of Bible study was the homes of the early Christians."

The number of families in Nebraska receiving Bible instruction in their homes from Jehovah's witnesses, has increased by 17 per cent in the last six months, it was said. Sakotos urged increased effort on this phase of the ministry. He said "if men learn the basic Christian principles through home Bible study, they can go into the world to help others."

Twenty-one trained students were ordained. Among these was Rosetta M. Kephart. The new ministers were given assignments in Nebraska.

At the three-day conference, the witnesses agreed that now more than ever, men need instruction in the Bible. Plans were laid for Bible talks by trained ministers to be given in every Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's witnesses in Nebraska every Sunday for six months. The program will be in addition to regular advanced training provided for the Witnesses themselves.

"Opportunities also will be afforded for the public to hear scholarly lectures in Christian homes," a spokesman said. "This program is being provided for the benefit of those who wish increased Bible knowledge. The witnesses plan to give personal invitations to all Nebraska residents to hear these talks."

The ULCW of Christ Lutheran Church met Feb. 7 at the home of Mrs. A. B. Lentz.

Banquets Were The Real Thing Back In 1898

The Journal has received a copy of the Plattsmouth Evening News of July 7, 1898 telling of a banquet staged at the Hotel Perkins, then under the management of F. R. Guthman. The menu shows that a banquet was the real thing back in those days.

The clipping is as follows: "The Masonic lodge of this place held a very interesting meeting at their hall last night where they initiated several candidates into the mysteries of the third or 'dumpers' degree of the order after which an invitation was extended to the lodge by six of members who have recently taken new degrees, to participate in a supper at the Hotel Perkins, to which place about fifty of the members repaired and feasted on the following bill of fare.

Lobster salad, olives, radishes, lettuce with hard boiled eggs, assorted pickles, cold meats, leg of veal with jelly, ham with pepper grass, roast beef, pickled tongue with sliced lemons, pies lemon a la marango, cakes, marble, coconut, spice and chocolate.

And French rolls, salla lions, light and rye bread, imported cheese, strawberries and ice cream, mixed nuts, layer raisins, oranges, bananas, fancy and cream candy, coffee, tea.

Toasts were given by several prominent members of the order.

The banquet lasted until 2 o'clock when they departed for their respective homes, expressing themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening.
