

Dr. Ferre To Teach At Murdock

Dr. Gustave Ferre, Dean of Cotner School of Religion in Lincoln, has been engaged to teach a survey course at the School of Christian Service in Murdock next month.

This fact was announced by the executive committee composed of representatives of Murray, Weeping Water, Alvo, Avoca, Elmwood, Eagle and Murdock.

Other faculty members will be Mrs. Glantz, Mrs. Carl and Mrs. Sigler, all of Lincoln, Richard Miller of Omaha and Vernon Schroeder of Ralston.

The dates for this interdenominational leadership training school are March 6, 13 and 20.

Dick Deems of the Alvo Methodist church is dean of the school and Vitor Schwarz, minister of the Murray and Weeping Water Christian churches is assistant dean.

WELDING CLASS

Applications for the adult welding class at the high school will be accepted for one more week only. It was announced by Don Hansen, instructor.

Persons interested may contact Hansen or Dale Bowman at the Chamber office.

Union Girl Weds Nebraska City Man

Vicki Jean Jorgenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Henderson, Union and Robert E. Avery, son of Mrs. Opal Hodge, Nebraska City were married Saturday at the First Baptist church in Union by the Rev. C. H. Shanklin.

Miss Mary Henderson, Union, was the matron of honor and Donald Yates, Auburn, was the best man.

The bride wore a blue suite with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple will make their home in Nebraska City after Feb. 25.

Mrs. Avery, is a 1957 graduate of the Nehawka High school. Mr. Avery, is a graduate of Stella High school.

O. W. Finney Enters St. Mary's Hospital

O. W. Finney of Murray, well known contractor, entered the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City Monday. Mr. Finney who has not been in the best of health for some time, will undergo observation and treatment to determine the nature of his illness.

Keeping in Touch

Harry Gobelman, residing east of Union, was in the city Monday and while here was a caller at the Journal to renew his subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cuthrell were hosts at a committee meeting for the PHS Class of 1938. Further plans are being made for a banquet reunion here June 28.

Mrs. Arnold Buechler departed Tuesday for Lester, Iowa, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Denker. The father has been in poor health for some time and has just recently returned from Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McClure and children Jay and Linda from Osborne, Kan., were weekend guests at the Glen McClure home here. Warren and Glen are brothers. They also visited the K. J. Dunlap family.

Mrs. Tony Klumm, patient at the St. Joseph Hospital in Omaha improving but will have to remain at the hospital for some time. Mr. Klumm was at the hospital Thursday to visit the patient.

Mrs. Henry Fornoff was quite surprised last Sunday when she came home from church to find all her children and grandchildren there waiting for her with a fine dinner ready. It was her birthday and they came to help her celebrate the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Somerville from Moab, Utah, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Henry Fornoff and family.

Linda Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Towner Livingston, Plattsmouth, was named on the Hastings College Dean's List of scholastic honor students at the end of the first semester. Positions on the dean's list are won by having an average of approximately 90 per cent for the semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greag, retired farmers of the Murray and Nehawka areas, will move to Plattsmouth and live at a property they own on South Ninth. Their son, Jim, is a junior at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White have returned home from a vacation trip to California where they visited their son, Kenneth White and family. They made the trip by train.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Caldwell were in Lincoln Sunday as dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schneider.

Mrs. Harlan Hennings entered the Clarkson Hospital, Omaha, this afternoon and will submit to surgery Friday morning.

Mrs. Victor Volkhart has returned from a nine day visit to Chamois, Mo., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nichols and other relatives. Mrs. Volkhart helped celebrate the 54th wedding anniversary of her parents. She also visited with friends Mr. and Mrs. George Hatley at Jefferson City, Mo.

Mrs. Amy Elliott Behrens, former Plattsmouth resident now living in Colorado, was hospitalized Thursday facing a delicate bone surgery. Friends may send cards to her at the Memorial Hospital, Room 379, Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Behrens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Elliott of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriswiser are enjoying a trip through the southern states.

Status of 355th Here Unchanged

There is no danger of Plattsmouth's Heavy Mortar Co., of the 35th Infantry Division, Federal Army Reserve, being eliminated or even cut in numbers, Capt. Cecil Karr, the commanding officers says.

The unit was mistakenly referred to as a National Guard unit in a Monday story but is in the Army Reserve.

Capt. Karr says there are indications the strength of the unit here will be increased rather than cut.

Merle Hamilton Writes Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Hamilton received a letter from their son, Merle O. Hamilton, and wife Betty, written while they were enroute by express ferry to Istanbul.

Merle had been stationed in Greenland and is now in Turkey. He states the weather is mild and not too cold yet it had snowed although the snow did not remain on the ground long. He sent greetings to all his Plattsmouth friends.

Death of George E. Berger, Long Time Resident

George E. Berger, 77, longtime resident of the Murray community, died Wednesday morning, Feb. 26, at 10 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. James H. Brown, in Omaha. Mr. Berger suffered a heart attack and for the past weeks has been ill. Mr. Berger was born Feb. 28, 1881, at Murray, son of James W. and Susie E. Johnson Berger, pioneer residents of that community. Here in this place of his birth he grew to manhood and spent the greater part of his life with the exception of a few years spent at Ness City, Kan. He was never married.

Surviving his passing are two sisters, Mrs. James H. Brown, Omaha, and Mrs. Marie E. Steiner, Oklahoma City, Okla., as well as several nieces and nephews.

The Berger family has had a large part in the history of Rock Bluffs and later of Murray. The father, James W. Berger, operated for many years an oxen freight line from the Missouri river landing at Rock Bluffs to the west. With the founding of Murray when the Missouri Pacific was built through Cass County, Mr. Berger built a hotel at Murray that the family operated for many years.

At Murray, Mr. Berger became a member of the Christian church and has continued a faithful member until his death. Funeral services will be Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Caldwell-Linder funeral chapel in this city. Rev. Joe Barr of Murray will conduct the services. Mrs. Steiner, the sister from Oklahoma City, will be here for the services.

Burial will be at the Horning cemetery south of Plattsmouth. Visiting hours will be Sunday from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p. m. at the chapel.

Harold Hart Dies At Omaha Hospital Tuesday

Harold Alexander Hart, 52, died Tuesday, Feb. 25, at the University hospital where he had been under treatment.

Mr. Hart was born Dec. 1, 1905, at Garden Grove, Iowa, to William S. and Mary Carr Hart. He was married on July 26, 1942, to Hazel Hull who survives his passing with three sons, Harold and Arthur, Nebraska City, and Richard, Omaha.

There also survive a brother, George W., former Cass County commissioner, of Lincoln, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Sidney, Iowa, and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Hart resided in a number of places in Nebraska, including Grand Island and for the past 17 years in Omaha.

Funeral services will be at the Sattler funeral home here Friday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Paul Sawtell of Lincoln officiating. Burial will be in the Oak Hill cemetery in the family plot. Pall bearers will be Harold, Harry, George, Arthur, Tom, Alen and Richard Hull.

Visiting hours will be Thursday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. at Sattler's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chriswiser and Ray Chriswiser were afternoon and supper guests Sunday of the Roy Chriswisers. Roger Bates, Nebraska City, spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates.
