Farm-Home Day Audience Takes Trip 'Round World

Around the World in 60 Minutes is a fast pace. Actually, Mrs. Everett Spangler, chairman of the County Women's Council, U. S. A., made the trip last summer.

The 200 persons attending the annual Cass County Extension Farm and Home Day program at Weeping Water took the trip with her again in a 60-minute narration by Mrs. Spangler while viewown by her son Charles Spangler of Murray.

The pictures were interesting and educational and well illustrated the work and efforts attainby the organization which Mrs. Spangler represents, in the lands around the world. Following the travelogue, Milo Mumgaard discussed crop drying and Magdalene Pfister presented an illustrated lecture on home decorations. A pancake feed was served by the Weeping Water Chamber of Commerce. A wet rainy day reduced the size of the crowd by about one-half that expected.
