

Death Of John Heer, Father Of Mrs. J. W. Taenzler

John Heer, 79, long time resident of western Iowa, father of Mrs. J. W. Taenzler, of this city died last week at his home in Council Bluffs.

He was a native of Germany and came to the United States when twenty-one years old, locating in the west. He has spent a greater part of his lifetime in the vicinity of Glenwood and Council Bluffs.

The wife preceded him in death twenty-nine years ago. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Taenzler and Mrs. Margaret Caldwell of Glenwood.

Funeral services were held on Friday at Mineola, Ia., with burial at the Lutheran church cemetery. Rev. and Mrs. Taenzler, Bob and Betty, of this city attended the funeral services.

Burrell Evans, Former Teacher Here Dies Monday

Burrell Evans, 65, formerly a teacher in the Plattsmouth city schools, died Monday at his home, 3007 Webster street, Omaha. He is survived by his wife, Beulah, Omaha; two daughters, Josephine, Herndon, Va.; Beryl, Bonn, Germany; sister Anna Mae Smith San Francisco.

Mr. Evans was a resident of Plattsmouth in the early forties, serving as a member of the faculty of the local schools, teaching in the grades and also assisting in the coaching work of the high school. He was also instrumental in organizing a band in the lower grades.

After leaving here Mr. Evans was a teacher in the Bellevue high school until his retirement.

Death Comes To Glen Rawls At Bedford, Virginia

Word was received here Tuesday by Mrs. J. W. Holmes of the death of Robert Glen Rawls, 67, a nephew of the late J. W. Holmes and a former resident of Plattsmouth.

Glen, who has been making his home for the past few years at the Elks National Home at Bedford, Va., passed away Saturday. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Bedford and the interment at the Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

He was born at Ong, Nebr., but was brought here when a small child and made his home in Murray and Plattsmouth for the greater part of his younger years. He was engaged here for a number of years with the C. E. Wescott's Sons at their clothing store, later moving to the west where he lived at Butte, Mont., for several years and later at Seattle, Wash.

He was in the armed service in world war I and was a member of the American Legion and the Elks Lodge at the time of his death.

He is survived by two children, Mrs. Beatrice Comerford of Orinda, Calif., and a son, Carlos Rawls, a member of the armed service.

Preceding him in death are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls and two brothers.

The news of his passing will bring a great regret to the old friends who had the pleasure of knowing him in the years of his residence here.
