

Drug Store Here Marks 11th Year

Fred Feldhausen is celebrating the 11th anniversary of the Feldhausen Drug Store this week with a storewide sale.

Ordinarily, this annual event is held in January. Because of the illness of Mr. Feldhausen early this year, it was necessary to postpone the celebration until this time.

As it turns out, the new date for the sale very nearly coincides with the Spring Opening dates. The Feldhausen event starts on Wednesday and continues through Saturday.

Joseph G. Strawn Enters Race For The Unicameral

Entering the primary race for the unicameral the past week is Joseph G. (Jerry) Strawn, of Papillion, to face the battle with Edwin T. McHugh of Murdock and H. L. Gayer of Papillion.

Mr. Strawn is a real estate broker, insurance man and abstractor. He was a candidate for the legislature at the last primary election, running third in race with E. A. Fricke and Senator Tom Dooley.

Past Masters Night at Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6 AF, AM

Thursday evening Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, AF & AM held observance of the 34th past master's night, attended by a large number of the members of the lodge. The event honored Russell H. Nielsen, past master for 1957.

The delicious baked ham dinner was prepared by the members of the lodge, Elmer Tritsch, R. A. Noel, Sheldon Smith and Lowell McQuinn, serving as chefs for the enjoyable event. The serving was by the members of the lodge.

The banquet was presided over by Raymond Lancaster, worshipful master for 1958, in his usual capable manner.

William F. Evers, past master of No. 6, gave the presentation of a fifty year pin to Alvin Range, for his long and faithful service to the Masonic order, to which Mr. Range responded.

The presentation of the Past Master's Jewel was made by Marion Reed, past master, to Mr. Nielsen, praising his work for the order and capable handling of the office during his term. Mr. Nielsen gave a very fine acceptance that was much enjoyed.

Carl Glersen, grand secretary of the Masonic order was presented, representing the grand lodge of the state.

Toastmaster Lancaster presented the speaker of the evening, Justice Edward F. Carter, of the Nebraska supreme court, who gave a fine address covering the history and appliance of law in the world's progress. It was an address deeply appreciated and enjoyed by the audience.

Past Master Charles Mead gave the invocation and benediction.

There were representatives present from lodges at Elmwood, Springfield, Nehawka and Bellevue.
