The couple has set Aug. 10 as their wedding day.

Thomas Armagost, Bride To Live In Denver, Colo.

Thomas C. Armagost and his bride the former Miss Mary Wood, are now at home at 2439 S. Gaylord, Denver, Colo.

The couple was married Feb. 3 at the Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church at Lakewood. The Rev. Charles Weishaup officiated at the double ring service at three o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wood of Eden, Wyo., and the bridegroom is the son of G. B. Armagost of Greeley, Colo.

A graduate of Greeley High School, class of 1951, Mr. Armagost served four years in the air force. His mother was Leona Puls Armagost and he is also a grandson of Louis Puls of Greeley, well known family of Cass County.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white lace over satin, featuring a chapel train of nylon tulle. The bodice was designed with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves tapering to a point, with the wrist. Her fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a Juliet cap and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Natalie Puls of Greeley, cousin of the bridegroom, was the candlelighter. Mrs. Delores Lucero was her sister's matron of honor.

Clara Puls, the bridegroom's aunt, had charge of the gifts. Robert B. Armagost served his brother as best man, and another brother, Donald, ushered.

Following a reception at the church, the couple took a wedding trip to Colorado Springs.
