WHO IS YOUR PHARMACIST?

Often a doctor hesitates before writing a prescription to ask "Who is your pharmacist?" He wants to know because it is either a difficult prescription requiring the fullest measures of professional skill and care in its compounding, or the prescription calls for a new or rare drug that only a truly professional pharmacy would have in readiness. When you answer FELDHOUSEN'S to the question "Who is your pharmacist?" the doctor knows that he can write the prescription with full confidence in our ability to dispense the medicine.

Community Pays Honor To Long Time Resident

Saturday afternoon the residents of the community paid honor to the memory of a lifelong resident of Cass County, George Raymond Sayles, 83, who died April 9 at Lutheran hospital at Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he had been a patient for a week.

Mr. Sayles had been a leading figure in the community life of Cass County, serving as a teacher in the schools near Cedar Creek, also as a grain dealer or a number of years, a mail carrier out of the Plattsmouth postoffice, a clerk in the Burlington shops and also as city clerk of this city.

Elected county clerk of Cass County in 1918 he served in that capacity until January, 1951.

The services at the Sattler Funeral home at 2 p. m. Saturday was largely attended by the old friends of the county. Rev. Keith Delap, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Mrs. Hugh Stander Jr. served as vocalist with Mrs. George Jacobs as organist.

Burial was at Glendale cemetery near Cedar Creek with old friends serving as casketbearers, Carl J. Schneider, Albert Olson, C. E. Ledgway, Howard Davis, Chris Bullin and Raymond Larson.

Obituary
George Raymond Sayles, son of George E. and Frances Cooley Sayles, was born Feb. 22, 1875 at Cedar Creek. He was married June 27, 1897, to Miss Liesetta Wolff who survives with three children, Mrs. Major I. Hall (Blanche) of Grant, Neb., Mrs. William Mudie (Adelia) of Eastchester, N.Y., Dr. Iowa, and six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by the parents and four sisters.

Dr. John Calvert Former Resident Receives Honor

Wesleyan University at Lincoln is holding inaugural ceremonies for Dr. Vance D. Rogers, on April 18th. At this time the university will confer honorary degrees upon two of their distinguished alumni, one of these a former resident of Plattsmouth.

Dr. John H. Calvert of Pierce, resident of Plattsmouth in his boyhood days, is to be awarded a Doctor of Science degree.

Dr. Calvert, is a son of Rev. and Mrs. John Calvert, formerly in charge of the First Methodist church in this city, and spent his school days in this city where he was active in the athletic affairs of the school. After graduation from the Plattsmouth schools he entered Wesleyan university, graduating in 1925. He graduated from the university of Nebraska in 1929.

Dr. Calvert has practiced medicine in Pierce since 1930. He was mayor of Pierce 1940-41 and member of the school board 1950-52. He has served on the board of trustees of Wesleyan including a vice-presidency 1953-56.

Calvert was awarded the Wesleyan Medal of Honor, the highest annual recognition of the Wesleyan Alumni association. He is trustee of the Crowell Memorial Home at Blair and chairman of the Methodist Church board at Pierce. He is also director of the Cones State Bank.
