Poppies Bring Aid To War Disabled

Poppies worn on Poppy Day in tribute to the war dead bring aid to disabled veterans of three wars, explained Mrs. Glen McClure, child welfare chairman of Plattsmouth Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. McClure is helping complete preparations for observance of Poppy Day here May 3.

The Auxiliary volunteers who will distribute the little red memorial flowers will carry contribution boxes, and all contributions constitute the largest source of financial support for the Auxiliary's year-round work of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

Chiang Kai-shek has been president of Nationalist China ever since Oct. 10, 1928.
