Life Story Of Florence Todd Sheldon Told

Florence Todd was born on March 21, 1888, at Nehawka, Nebraska to Lewis and Florence Sheldon Todd. When she was only two weeks old her young mother died, and from that time she lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Sheldon. She attended grade school and two years of high school in Nehawka and graduated from Weeping Water Academy. She entered the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics in 1911.

In June of that same year she was married to George C. Sheldon of Ellensburg, Wash., Washington. They made their home in Nehawka where they have lived continuously since. In 1940 they moved to their present home where Florence had lived with her grandparents as a girl. Two sons were born to them but both died in infancy. Later, a daughter, Ruth Ann, was born to them.

After the death of her father's second wife, leaving seven young children motherless, Florence helped during her summer vacations to care for her brothers and sisters, and spent much time in sewing for the girls. They have all loved their sister, and always found in her a loving and sympathetic friend.

Her sister, Mary, was sick and stayed with her for a long time. After Mary's death, her daughter, Beverly Bonner, came to make her home with her aunt and uncle - for them all a rewarding relationship. Two other nieces, Betty Todd and Lois Giles stayed at their home for periods while attending the Nehawka school. She cared for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Irwin L. Sheldon, in her home during the final months of her life. After Florence's elderly uncle, John Todd, was left a widower, he came to make his home with them, and remained there until his death.

She often said that she moved into the old home so that all the family might feel free to come at any time - and she certainly did achieve her goal. Not only was it place to come for physical comfort and the good food she served, but her home and garden were an inspiration to all who came - for the dignity and beauty of it all - a creation of her artistic soul.

She and her husband, George, were united in a common purpose to serve their community to the best of their ability. They have been members and pillars of the Methodist Church and leaders in all endeavors for the best interests of their town.

Florence was a member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Nehawka Woman's Club, Nehawka Flower Club, Extension Club, and Daughters of the American Revolution. Only this year her project for Woman's Club was writing the life history of her pioneer Grandmother Julia Sheldon, thus recording much of the early history of Nebraska, and Nehawka.

Such were her dreams, such were her examples of service, that her life has left the community and all her friends and relatives richer for her sojourn here. Such are the treasures that endure.

Two months after suffering a severe stroke, Florence passed a second stroke and suffered away at St. Mary's Hospital in Plattsmouth on April 20, 1958 at the age of 70 years and one month.

She leaves to mourn her death, her husband, George C. Sheldon; her daughter and son-in-law, Ruth Ann and Glenn Thacker of Ithaca New York; her niece and nephew, Beverly and Bob Long and their children, Russell and Steven of Omaha; one half brother, L. G. Todd of Tujunga, California; two half sisters, Mrs. George Hoffmeister of Imperial, Nebraska and Mrs. Claude Gensler of Long Beach, California; and her stepmother, Mrs. Lewis Todd of Long Beach. There are also many cousins who loved her dearly.

Richard Schoepffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schoepffer, has been elected vice president of the Eta Chapter of the International Honorary Professional Fraternity in Industrial Arts and Industrial Vocational Education at Peru, Nebr.

Death Of David Allen Harper

David Allen Harper, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Harper, Omaha died suddenly April 30. He was 10 months and 22 days old.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at the Burket Funeral Home, 3405 Farnum Street, Omaha.

He is survived by the parents and brother, Dickie, 11 years old.

Mrs. Harper is the former Beulah Kiser of Plattsmouth.
