Linen Shower Honors Miss Lessman

Wednesday evening Mrs. Joe Zastera was hostess in her home at 414 Avenue C, honoring Miss Mary Catherine Lessman of Lincoln.

Miss Lessman will be married May 10 at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Lincoln, to Mr. Duane H. Wenzl, also of Lincoln.

Guests attended the bridal linen shower from Lincoln, Plattsmouth and Louisville. Bridal games were played.

The honoree was seated at the gift table, decorated as a May Pole in the bride's colors, blue and white, and nosegays of violets. Miss Helen Lessman, sister of the bride-elect, assisted in the opening of the gifts.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, carrying out the blue and white colors.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Homer Wenzl, Beatrice, and Mrs. William Wenzl, Lincoln, mother and grandmother of the prospective bridegroom; Mrs. John Schreiner, Lincoln, mother of the honoree; Mrs. Andrew Steinmiller, Mrs. Don Adams and Mrs. Carl Irons, all of Lincoln.

Also Mrs. Irvin Inman, Mrs. Rose Templemeyer, Miss Eldora Pankonin, Mrs. Lawrence Boardman of Louisville and Mrs. J. F. Zastera Jr., of Two Harbors, Mich.

Mrs. Walter Fulton returned home Friday afternoon from the St. Catherine's Hospital where she underwent nose surgery Wednesday morning. She is doing fine at home.

50 Attend May Fellowship Tea

Fifty women met for the Annual May Fellowship Tea of the Plattsmouth United Council of Church Women at the Mynard Evangelical United Brethren Church Friday.

Devotions were in keeping with the theme "A Place to Live." Readers were Mrs. Day, Mrs. Kaffenberger and Mrs. Hendrix.

A voca solo was given by Mrs. Carl Ogg with Mrs. Roy Cole as accompanist.

Following the devotions the film, "The Barrier," showing the overcoming of class prejudices, was shown.

Due to a change in the set up of the annual program, elections were not held in connection with the May Fellowship Tea this year. The elections and installation service will be held at a special meeting in January.

Tea was served by the women's group of the Mynard church. Mrs. Hendrix, president of the WWSW, poured.

Local People Visit Camp Site

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Humiston and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis attended a Barbeque at Camp Fontanelle near Fremont Sunday.

This camp is being constructed for the use of the Youth in Eastern Nebraska by the Methodist Church.

The 150 acre site is located high above the Elkhorn River in a beautiful wooded area. The plans of the camp are to accommodate 150 campers including a large swimming pool and several smaller camping units.

The camp is to be ready for use in 1959.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are co-chairmen of Cass County of the building committee.
