Mrs. Roy Gregg Has Heart Attack Monday At Omaha
Monday Mrs. Roy Gregg, 820 So. 9th street, was in Omaha in company with Mrs. Grant Roberts, who had driven her mother, Mrs. Floyd Fulton and grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Smith to that city. The ladies had accompanied Mrs. Smith to receive treatment.

Mrs. Roberts had stopped her car near the Medical Arts building and the four ladies started to walk into the building when suddenly Mrs. Gregg was stricken. She was rushed to the Clarkson hospital where she is under medical care for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg moved to this city last fall to make their home and their legion of friends in the Murray and Nehawka communities will regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Gregg.

Four Hundred See Ceremony at St. John's On Sunday

Sunday, May 4th, St. John's Church packed with about 400 persons, witnessed a most colorful and touching ceremony of the Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary. At 7:30 p. m. the procession started, headed by Wayne Williams as cross-bearer. Fifty altar boys, dressed in cassock and surplice, followed. Thirty girls, dressed in white from the first to seventh grade, were flower girls. Then came thirty page boys, from the 1st to 3rd grade, dressed in white suits. Following these came the queen's court of twenty girls in white, with white and blue headbands, bearing lighted candles.

The May queen was preceded by eighteen courtesses, young ladies of the High School Sodality. Each young miss was beautifully and colorfully gowned in a fashionable formal evening gown, and carried bouquets or sprays of flowers. Thomas Smith was the special attendant of the queen and helped her in carrying the crown. Two princesses, Coleen Kersten and Mary Lynn McClanahan, attended the queen who was Theresa Ann Weber. Six acolytes in cassock and surplice followed. Closing the procession were the Rev. Victor Stachowiak, assistant pastor at St. John's, the Rev. Walter Banach, pastor of Holy Rosary, Plattsmouth, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Przdzik, pastor of St. John's and Dean of the Plattsmouth Deanery.

The procession entered the church reciting the rosary, which was led through a public address system by Mr. Walter Smith, L.L.B. When the procession arrived in the sanctuary, the crowning hymn was sung. Then the queen crowned the statue of the Blessed Virgin with a crown of jewels and flowers. An Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin was recited by the children and the young people. All the school children then presented lighted candles to the Blessed Virgin. This was followed by the presentation by the eighteen courtesses of their bouquets, which were placed by the queen on the Virgin's Altar. Then a hymn to the Holy Ghost was sung by the choir.

The Rev. Victor Stachowiak then preached a beautiful Marian sermon emphasizing the influence of Mary in the daily life of Christians. Following the sermon, the Lourdes hymn was sung by the choir. Finally Father Walter Banach gave benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament. The service ended with the singing of the "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," sung by the entire congregation during the recessional.

The procession was organized and directed by the Ursuline Sisters of St. John School.

First Communion For Class At St. John's Church

Next Sunday, May 11th, which is also Mother's Day, at the eight o'clock High Mass, eighteen children of St. John's parish will receive their First Holy Communion at St. John's church. The children have been prepared for this great event by many months of special training by the Ursuline Sisters and the priests of the parish. Two 2nd graders, Marcia Knutson and Genevieve Lebens, symbolizing angels, will lead the class to the altar to receive their First Holy Communion from the hands of Msgr. Joseph Przdzik, pastor, who will celebrate the High Mass.

Following the reception of Holy Communion by the class, their parents and other members of their families will proceed to the Communion rail to receive Holy Communion. Thus they will put themselves in closest spiritual communion with their children in this important event of their lives.

Rotarians Hear About Cars, Care

Cars and their care were the topic at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday noon at C. E. Shellenger, local service station operator and program chairman for the day, presented his own program.

He said cars today are intricate pieces of machinery and require careful attention and servicing much beyond what the layman can understand about their operation. The need for periodic attention is illustrated, he said, by a recent incident. A woman brought a car to the station and complained of a "noise". Inspection showed a loose bolt which by being loose threw the entire front end out of alignment. Without attention the entire front end might have dropped out and caused a serious accident, the service station man said.

Despite the higher cost of cars today, their operational cost is 34 cents per ton mile less than that of the 1930s he said. Improvement in products, tires, gas and oil has made the difference. Rotarians fired a lot of questions at Shellenger. Asked about permanent anti-freeze, he said it can be kept in the engine and used from year to year providing rust inhibitor is added twice a year. He said there are 15 common causes for a car's "heating," the most common leaves and bugs plastered to the radiator front. High School Rotarians for May at the meeting were Bill Long and Wayne Lewis.

Installation of Father Banach at Holy Rosary

On Thursday, May 8th at 7:30 p. m. the Rev. Walter Banach will be canonically and formally installed as pastor of Holy Rosary church, Plattsmouth. The Plattsmouth District Dean, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Przdzik, pastor of St. John's, will be the installer.

Father Banach comes to Plattsmouth from Cambridge, where he was a pastor of St. John's Church for 17 years. During his stay in Cambridge, the parish plant was renewed and the congregation increased considerably in size. All the priests of the Plattsmouth deanery, thirteen in number, will participate in the installation service. Fr. Banach will first repeat this oath of obedience to his superiors. Then the letter of appointment by the Most Rev. James Casey, Bishop of Lincoln will be read. The Rt. Rev. Dean then will deliver the installation sermon, explaining the relation of a parish priest to his people, emphasizing the necessity of mutual cooperation and prayer.

The symbols of his office, the keys to the church, the Mass Chalice, the Mass book, the confessional stole, will then be presented the new pastor by the installer. After this, Fr. Banach will preach his acceptance sermon. This will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given by the newly installed pastor.

Preceding the services, the ladies of the parish will serve dinner to the visiting clergy in the Church Hall.

Rural Homemakers Guests In Omaha

Recognition day for 115 Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa rural homemakers is being held in Omaha today at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Hotel. This is being sponsored by the agricultural committee and the Women's division of the Chamber of Commerce. A program of activities include the noonday luncheon at the Live Stock Exchange building. Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson of Plattsmouth is one of the guests invited to attend the event.

Servicemen Meet Here On Furloughs

Mrs. Velva Keller and son, Private DeWayne Keller visited Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bethel and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bethel. Mrs. Keller is from Kearney. Private DeWayne Keller has completed his basic training at Fort Carson, Colo., and had hoped to get to see Lawrence Bethel while they were on their furloughs. Private Keller left Omaha Monday night for Fort Bragg, N. C. He had lived in Plattsmouth with his mother and sisters for a few years.

Handsome Jacques Bergerac Newest Screen Heart Throb

Girls—watch out for a new screen heart-breaker. He's handsome Frenchman, Jacques Bergerac, playing a co-starring role with Gene Kelly, Mitzi Gaynor, Kay Kendall and Taina Elg in Sol C. Siegel's M-G-M musical, "Les Girls" coming to the Cass Theatre Sun., Mon., and Tues., May 11, 12 and 13.

Bergerac won his role in the new film as a result of extensive appearances in television during the past two years. During 1936 alone, he appeared in 17 shows, including Playhouse 90 and Climax. The actor signed at M-G-M after leaving his native country in 1933, but he returned to Europe to make his English-speaking film debut in "Twist of Fate". Remaining abroad for almost a year, he appeared in "The Time Is Now" in France and in "The Strange Intruder."

During the war, Bergerac served with the Air Force in Africa. Later he joined an operetta company in Paris and while appearing in a Victor Hugo play was grabbed by an American film talent scout. —Adv.
