City Support of Buddy Poppy Sale Saturday Urged

Mayor Grant Roberts urged the first Buddy Poppy sale for sale here by the VFW Post. The citywide sale is Saturday. Mayor Roberts urged backing for the Poppy Sale fund raising campaign and said: "The wonderful things that the VFW is doing with the proceeds from the annual Buddy Poppy sale more than warrant a generous contribution from each member of this community. The prompt help given to our needy and disabled veterans, the magnificent care given our orphans and widows of honored war dead, the fostering of true Americanism—are some of the highly commendable things being done by the VFW through the support given the Buddy Poppy sale by the people of Plattsmouth. "When we buy our Buddy Poppies he said, "we may give heartfelt thanks that in a small but important way, we are able to pay interest on that everlasting debt of gratitude we owe those courageous men who were ready to give their lives at a time when our nation could not survive without them. Thousands upon thousands did give their lives, and those men we cannot forget."

2 County Youths Leave for Service; 18s: Sign Up

Two Cass County youths left May 8 for induction into the army, according to Mrs. John E. Schutz, clerk of the Cass County Selective Service Office. They are Albert Joseph Thiel, Jr. of Murdock and Gerhard A. Peterich of Springfield. Mrs. Schutz again reminded all prospective draftees that the law requires 18-year-olds, subject to heavy penalty for violation, to register with their local Board of Selective Service System within five days after they turn 18. According to Mrs. Schutz, some boys have been slow about registering and reports have been received by the local office on several persons who have turned 18 and are still unregistered. The Selective Service Law must be obeyed for the welfare of the nation, Mrs. Schutz said.

Youngsters Get Things Rolling!

The push of a button got things rolling here Wednesday but a quick exit prevented what might have been a damaging accident for three small boys. Mike Morehead, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morehead, and two friends were in the Morehead car parked on the hill at 3rd and 2nd Avenue here while Mrs. Morehead visited in the neighborhood. One of the boys experimented with the push-button shifting mechanism and the car began to roll, police said. It went down hill and into the front yard of the Robert Paris home at 315-2nd Ave., where it crashed over the concrete front stoop and halted over a terrace. Luckily, the boys had presence of mind to jump out when the car began to move. They were unhurt, just scared. Only damage was to the stoop. The Moreheads live at 721 Avenue E. Mrs. Paris and one of their boys were in the house at the time the car hit.

Rainfall Totals 5.02 Inches

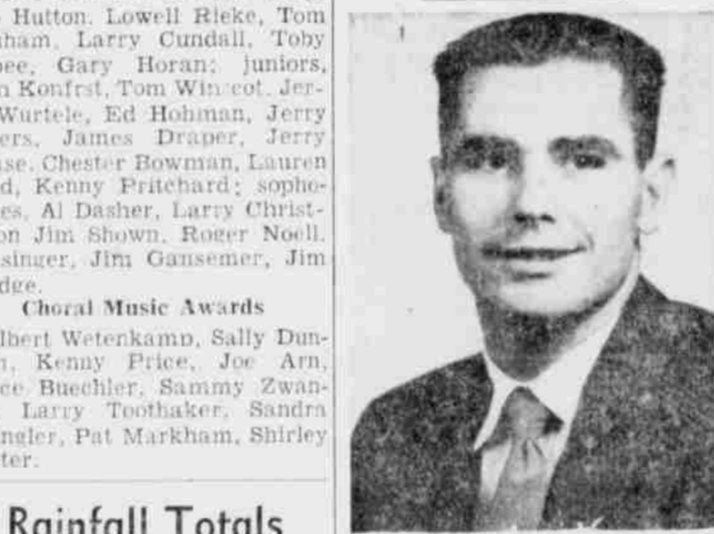

Tuesday's showers here raised this year's rainfall total to 5.02 inches compared with 7.13 inches at the comparable date last year. May rains have been good this year but rainfall for the year to date compared with 1957 lags because of comparatively poor receipts of moisture in March and April. In 1957, Plattsmouth had 1.86 inches of rain in March and 2.70 inches in April. This year, the March rainfall was only .67. The April figure was 2.06 inches. Last year's complete total of rainfall here was 30.68 inches, most in the past several years. All the figures above are those measured and recorded by Schreiner Drug Store where a current rainfall record is kept posted.

Plattsmouth Reunion in Capital

By JOE KVAPIL
Washington, D. C. I can't tell you what the staid and stuffy in Washington, D. C., were doing May 4, but at the Kenneth Nash Post of the American Legion Hall, a number of former Plattsmouth people were dancing the waltz, polka, two-step, schottische, maxurka, tango and other twirling numbers. The occasion marked the 1958 reunion of Plattsmouth folks who are presently re-riding and employed in and around the Nation's capital. As soon as Ed Hruby's Bohemian Orchestra began playing, not only did feet fly fast in fancy footwork for four hours but everyone seemed to be aware of a deep sense of nostalgia for it seemed the hall became a veritable Hugh J.
