

SOCIETY

— Dial 241 —

Miss Carol Anne Henney Is Bride of Mr. Witzel of Madison

Baskets of blue and white daisies decorated the altar of the First Presbyterian Church here Saturday for the wedding of Miss Carol Anne Henney and Mr. Robert E. Witzel of Madison, Nebraska.

Mr. Witzel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Witzel of Madison. Miss Henney is a sister of Mrs. Jack Troop of this city.

The Reverend Keith Delap, pastor of the church, officiated at the five in the afternoon wedding ceremony in the presence of close friends and relatives.

Mrs. George Jacobs was organist and Mr. Lawrence Huddle, uncle of the bridegroom, was soloist.

The bride entered the church and made her way to the altar on the arm of her brother-in-law, Jack Troop. She was gown in a ballerina chantilly lace over net, over taffeta. The elongated waist was fashioned with a sash and neckline, accented with jeweled scallops of lace and long tapered sleeves. The very full skirt fell from the dropped waistline. Her elbow length veil of imported illusion was caught by a crown of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Faye Nahrstadt of Madison was maid of honor wearing a ballerina gown of romance blue organza fashioned with a scoop neckline. The full skirt was accented by a high waistline and cummerbund of shaded blue taffeta. She wore a matching headress and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Jack Michael Troop, nephew of the bride, attired in a white linen suit, was ringbearer.

Mr. Merlin H. Becker of Alliance was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Troop were hosts at a nuptial dinner for the immediate families following the ceremony.

The couple left on a wedding trip to South Dakota, and after May 24 will be at home at 324 North 28th St. Omaha.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth Schools, class of 1934 and a graduate of Nebraska Methodist Hospital School of Nursing, 1937.

Mr. Witzel graduated from the Madison High School in 1933 and attended Norfolk Junior College.

Union Auxiliary Hostess For Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary of Union will serve as hostess to the spring meeting of the Cass County American Legion Auxiliary Convention May 23 at Union.

All members of the American Legion Auxiliary of Cass County are invited to attend.

Miss Fricke Hostess To Guests Saturday

Miss Dora Fricke of this city was hostess Saturday to a group of relatives and friends at a luncheon. Guests included Mrs. E. A. Fricke, Mrs. Bob Fricke of Ashland, Mrs. Lillian Harshberger of Lincoln, and Mrs. E. A. Fricke's cousins, Miss Dora Meyer and Mrs. Martha Petrie of Watertown, Wis. The Wisconsin visitors were guests also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pancoast, at Omaha.

Mrs. Paul Biggerstaff is ill at the family home and is confined to bed.

Goldenrod Club Meets At Hild Home

The Goldenrod Study Club held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Hild with Mrs. Roy O. Cole, Mrs. Perry Dingman and Mrs. Will Minford assisting hostesses.

Twenty members were present and two visitors, Mrs. Fred Hild and Mrs. George Minford from Murray.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Ed Wehrlein with Mrs. Elbert Wiles at the piano. A solo was sung by Nancy Wehrlein and a piano solo was played by Mrs. George Jacobs.

Mrs. Gertrude Barnard thanked the members for the flowers brought her from Guest Day and for birthday cards Mrs. Ida Trumble received.

Mrs. Art Hild, president, told of the all-day meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in Lincoln had for all extension presidents. She also gave a report on the spring tea held in April at Weeping Water.

A collection was taken to be used for eggs for the children's home in Omaha.

Mrs. Nellie Spangler and Miss Grace Livingston gave a demonstration "Flower Arrangement." They discussed using the right containers for flowers and what colors should be used.

Some bouquets were brought by the members and were judged.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Jaycees Hold Dessert Luncheon

Consumers Hall took a tropical air May 17 for the 12:30 p.m. membership dessert luncheon of the Plattsmouth Mrs. Jaycees.

The theme for the luncheon was "In the Middle of an Island" and tables were covered in light blue representing the ocean, and each place was appointed with nut cups fashioned into thatch huts and palm trees on an "island."

The dessert served was in keeping with the tropical theme, a delightful blend of pineapple, oranges, bananas, berries and lime sherbet, served in pineapple shells.

Leis was presented to each guest, a small gift of Harold A. Smock, newly elected State Vice President of the Nebraska Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Grant Coolbaugh, chairman of the dessert luncheon, acted as toastmistress. She introduced Mrs. Harold A. Smock, president of the local Mrs. Jaycees, who spoke briefly to the guests present.

Also in keeping with the theme of the luncheon, Patty Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Murphy, presented a hula dance, which was enjoyed by all of the ladies present. Group singing "In the Middle of an Island" was held, and the balance of the program consisted of Dub's Bridge, at which high score and low score went to Mrs. Lloyd Fitch and Mrs. Marvin Welsh.

Assisting Mrs. Coolbaugh with the dessert luncheon project were Mrs. Bob Bogle, Mrs. Cecil McKnight, Mrs. Robert Nickles and Mrs. Harold A. Smock.

Mrs. Don Born and Mrs. Ralph Younker were greeters at the luncheon, and the luncheon was served by Mrs. Keener Price and Mrs. Raymond Smock.

Miss Arlene Cook Engaged To Wed

Master Sergeant and Mrs. Harold M. Rose of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Arlene Cook and Mr. Thomas Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. De-Vitt Martin, also of this city.

Both Miss Cook and Mr. Martin are graduating this year from Plattsmouth High School.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church parlors. Miss Maud Whitcomb of the bridegroom was the ring bearer. Jerry Meeske was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Jack Strudoff, Omaha, Robert Miller, Lincoln and Thomas Domingo, brother of the bride, Weeping Water.

Miss Susan Wood of Weeping Water played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist Miss Roberta Knaup of Weeping Water.

The bride's mother wore a suit of light tan with pink and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Miss Evelyn Wiles, Weeping Water, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Mary Lou Ashlock, Weeping Water, Mrs. Kenneth Haverchild, Ceresco and Miss Lois Hauschild, Louisville were in charge of the gifts.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church parlors. Miss Maud Whitcomb

Mrs. Gayle W. Meeske

Yvonne Domingo, Mr. Meeske Wed at Weeping Water church

WEeping Water (Special) - White tared Candelabra flanked by white beauty baskets of white Gladiolus and white carnations were lighted by Kenneth Dean Domingo, brother of the bride and John Meeske, brother of the bridegroom at the First Congregational Church, Weeping Water for the wedding of Miss Yvonne Domingo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Domingo and Gayle William Meeske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Meeske. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. K. Bauman in the presence of 275 guests.

The bride walked down the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father, wearing a gown styled and created by her mother; of Peau de sole satin and chantilly type lace. The skirt of satin with its smooth slender lines falling into a gentle cascade sweep. The high empire waistline featured a satin band. The bodice of chantilly type lace with the Sabrina neckline was traced with tiny pearls; with the four sleeves coming to a bridal point over the wrists and fastened with tiny pearls. The natural scallops of the lace formed the center with a bow of satin. The long full train of lace completed the silk illusion veil were held in place by an iridescent sequin and pearl tiara matching lace of train. She carried white carnations centered with an Orchid.

Miss Henrietta Wade, maid of honor, wore a sheath dress of white lace over pale embroidered orchid taffeta with matching floating panels. The bandeau of white lace with veil or orchid tulle; wearing white gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids wearing identical ensembles as that of the Maid of Honor were Miss Barbara Felton of Sioux Rapids, Ia.; Miss Jean Elaine Domingo, cousin of the bride and Miss Kay Clark of Weeping Water. They all wore jewelry of pink earrings, a gift of the bride.

Joan Domingo, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Stanley Sudduth of Omaha, cousin of the bridegroom was the ring bearer. Jerry Meeske was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Jack Strudoff, Omaha, Robert Miller, Lincoln and Thomas Domingo, brother of the bride, Weeping Water.

Miss Susan Wood of Weeping Water played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist Miss Roberta Knaup of Weeping Water.

The bride's mother wore a suit of light tan with pink and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Miss Evelyn Wiles, Weeping Water, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Mary Lou Ashlock, Weeping Water, Mrs. Kenneth Haverchild, Ceresco and Miss Lois Hauschild, Louisville were in charge of the gifts.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church parlors. Miss Maud Whitcomb

Mrs. Fitch Presides At VFW Auxiliary

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary to Post No. 2543 held their regular meeting Tuesday evening in the club rooms. Mrs. Lloyd Fitch presided.

One new member and one reinstatement, Mrs. Russell Schalk and Alice Terryberry, received the obligation.

Hospital, chairman, Mrs. LeRoy Wilson reported May Baskets were made for the Veterans Hospital patients.

Poppy chairman, Mrs. George McGraw reported May 24 as Poppy Day. Also that the Cub Scouts, St. John's 8th grade and Camp Fire girls would assist in selling poppies.

Cancer chairman for Plattsmouth, Mrs. Hazel Fitch reported $233 had been collected in the cancer drive.

The following officers were installed:

Banner Bearer, Mrs. Hazel Fitch; Color Bearer, Mrs. Keener Price; Trustees, Mrs. Mae Favors, Mrs. Lillian Alkire and assistant color bearers, Mrs. Laverne Liddick and Mrs. Harry Porter.

It was decided to send two girls to Youth Camp at Pappillon in July.

Memorial Day plans were discussed and made to have graveside services at the Edna Meisinger grave Memorial Day. Other deceased members graves are to be decorated.

The Conductress, Lucille McLean escorted Mrs. Dale Bowman, to the altar where she was presented her Guard for her Past Presidents pin.

Committee chairman appointed for the year are:

Americanism, Mrs. Fred Bishop; Community Service, Mrs. McLean; Cancer, Mrs. Dale Bowman; Hospital, Mrs. LeRoy Wilson; National Home, Mrs. Sophia Wolever; Youth Activity, Mrs. Howard Porter; Civil Defense, Mrs. Laverne Liddick.

Also Kitchen, Mrs. Pat Baburek; Publicity, Mrs. Harry Porter; Funeral, Mrs. Owen Willis; Courtesy, Mrs. Wayne Dasher; Rehabilitation, Mrs. Rose Day.

Also Membership, Mrs. Howard Porter; Cupboard, Mrs. Mae Favors and Poppy and Yearbook, Mrs. George McGraw.

At the close of the meeting a mock style show was presented by members of the auxiliary. Norma Wilson modeled a picture hat; Sophia Wolever, pill box hat; Helen Liddick, box jacket; Lucille McLean, ballerina duster; Louise McNulty, tea dress and Ruth Porter, a jumper.

Shirley Fitch, pedal pushers; Hazel Fitch, a boat neck dress; Maxine Bowman, a turtle-neck middy top; Mae Favors, a car coat; Clara Rhoden, Lillian Alkire and Barbara McGraw, sack dresses and Clara Price, spectator pumps.

Refreshments were served by Barbara McGraw, Lillian Alkire, Shirley and Hazel Fitch, Deloma Kaffenberger and Clara Rhoden.

Call Your News And Social Items to 241

Journal Want Ads Pay

BIRTHS

Daughter - Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dall of Bellevue announce the birth of a daughter, Amy Elizabeth, May 17 at the Methodist Hospital. Grandparents are Mrs. Herman Wilms of Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dall of Manly. The couple has one other child, a son, Francis Linn, three years old.

Son - Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Crawford are the parents of a 6 lbs. 7 1/2 oz. boy born May 17 at Offutt Air Force Base Hospital. He has been named Jeffrey Lynn. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ham of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crawford, Petoskey, Mich.

Son - Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Becker, a son, May 3rd at Lincoln General Hospital. He has been named William Floyd. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Becker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton of this city. Mrs. Becker was the former Sally Fulton.

Daughter - Mr. and Mrs. George Sachs are parents of an 8 pound, 10 ounce girl born at the St. Joseph Hospital May 15. The couple has three other children, all boys.

Mrs. Bill Williamson who has been a patient at the St. Catherine's Hospital, Omaha for treatment is expected to return home today.

Merry Workers Plan 35th Birthday Tea

On May 13 at the home of Mrs. Frank Toppliff, the Merry Workers completed plans for their 35th anniversary tea to be held at the Mvnard Community Hall, Sunday, June 22 at 2 o'clock.

Final details for the club tour to the Gardens at Shenandoah were also discussed. A busy schedule has been planned by the tour chairmen.

Mrs. Ernest Bond extended an invitation to the club to hold the annual family picnic at her home. The date was set for Sunday, July 27 at 12:30.

At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Neil Snell was honored by the members with a pink and blue shower.

The next formal meeting will be August 12 at the home of Mrs. Karl Kreager assisted by Mrs. John Hild.

Avoca Woman's Club Hosts District Meet

AVOCA (Special) - The Avoca Woman's Club held a clinic here Monday consisting of the district including Cass, Otoe and Lancaster counties.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. O. Atteber district president. Mrs. Don Wall, chairman of religion gave the devotionals. Mrs. Landis Rulla, 1st vice president, gave membership extension.

Also present were Mrs. George Meekling, 3rd vice president, Mrs. Calvin Stearns, 2nd vice, Syracuse, Plattsmouth, Johnson, Raymond, Sterling, Auburn, Nehawka, Nebraska City, Lincoln and Verdon.

BEN FRANKLIN

Beautiful
WREATHS
and
FLORAL DECORATIONS

for Memorial Day
Friday MAY 30th

98¢ to $2.79

5c & 10c KNORR'S 5c & 10c

So Right for Graduation!

Matched Lovelies!

Persian Princess
by PRINCESS GARDNER

Gahna Cowhide glowing with tiny "jewels"

- The Continental French Purse, roomy coin purse, pick-a-bill slot. Charga-Plate pocket. $5.00*
- The Registrar Billfold (not illustrated) $5.00*
- The Key Gard, Zipper closing $2.95*
- The Eye Glasses Case (not illustrated) $2.95
- The Cigarette Lighter (not illustrated) $2.50
- The Cigarette Case $3.95

White, pastels and other popular colors. *plus tax

Get your money's worth for your money...
give PRINCESS GARDNER

CASS DRUG
WALGREEN AGENCY

Arlene Cook

Master Sergeant and Mrs. Harold M. Rose of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Arlene Cook and Mr. Thomas Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. De-Vitt Martin, also of this city.

Both Miss Cook and Mr. Martin are graduating this year from Plattsmouth High School.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Journal Want Ads Pay

Iris are Blooming
At Niel's Corner
823 Second Ave.,
Garden Visitors Welcome

BIG COAT & SUIT SALE!

ONE BIG SMASH REDUCTION
No Follow-Ups

25% OFF ON EVERY Ladies Suit & Coat IN STOCK!

Here's Your Chance At Big Savings -
Hurry Down This Week - End. This Offer
Good For A Limited Time Only.
ALL SALES FINAL - NO LAY - AWAYS

NOTE:
A Representative For Our Betty Rose Coats Will Be Here Saturday Showing Fall and Winter Coats - You Are Invited To Come In And Make Your Selection For Fall Delivery.

Ladies Toggery
Fashion Center For Cass County
Cash or Use Your 1st. Charge

BIG COAT & SUIT SALE!