LOUISVILLE (Special)— Sylvia Godsey became the bride of Jerald R. Hirsch of Louisville, Neb., May 25 at First Presbyterian Church in Bristol, Tenn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Godsey of Bristol, Tenn., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hirsch of Louisville, Neb.

Sandra Godsey, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Godsey, another sister of the bride. Mr. Bruce Hirsch, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were David Webster of Bristol and Mr. Keith Zaharais of New York City.

A reception was held in the church parlors. The couple left on a wedding trip to Virginia and will reside at 104 West 70th Street, New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Vallery Attends Commencements
Mrs. Glen Vallery was in Omaha Thursday to attend the 8th grade graduation exercises of Washington School. Her grandson, Kenneth Koop, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Koop, was among the graduating class.

Saturday evening Mrs. Vallery attended June Commencement of Central High School of Omaha. Her grandson, Robert Glen Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson, was among the graduating class.

Robert Glen has been honored through his high school term, a member of the student council and lettered in Athletics. He leaves this coming week for Oahe Dam and area, near Pierre, S. D., where he has accepted a position with the Smithsonian Institute. He will enter the University of Nebraska this fall.

Local Ladies Attend Meeting In Omaha
Nebraska Society United States Daughters of 1812 met Monday for a noonday luncheon at the Omaha Athletic Club. Mrs. Dale Philpot, State President and Miss Jessie Robertson of this city attended.

Mrs. Philpot who was the official delegate to the National Meeting of the Daughters in Washington, D. C., in May gave an interesting report of the convention.

Miss Doris McDowell, Omaha, outlined the War of 1812 and Mrs. Thomas Brown spoke of the significance of Fort McHenry and the Memorials given by the Daughters.

Mrs. Harvey Gerner and Mrs. Mollie Gobeiman were unable to attend.

Old Time Resident Visits Home Town
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Budig of Chicago were here the past week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ofc, the latter, sister of Mr. Budig. Mr. and Mrs. Budig have just recently returned from Akron, O., where they visited their son, Ralph and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ofc were in Chicago for a visit and brought Mr. and Mrs. Budig back for a visit.

Paul, who has been residing in the Windy City for the past fifty years, found but few of the old friends remaining in the old home town, where for a great many years he made his home. He was engaged in the cigar making trade here until moving to Chicago.

Enroute back to their home they are stopping at Creston, Ia., to visit a cousin.

Mrs. Mae S. Morgan Passes Eighty-Fifth Birthday Sunday
Mrs. Mae S. Morgan, resident of Cass County for her younger years, passed her 85th birthday Sunday at her home, 413 North 5th street, Beatrice, where she has been for the past few years.

Mrs. Morgan is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Street, for many years residents of Weeping Water, until the family moved to Plattsmouth to make their home. Old friends over the county will recall her and her many activities in education work and social life.

Mrs. Morgan devoted her life time to educational work, being a teacher in the Plattsmouth schools many years. Later in the Burlington, Ia., school system. On her retirement she made her home here with her sister, the late Mrs. E. H. Westcott until going to Beatrice where she has resided at the PEO home.

Mrs. Morgan is quite frail but retains her bright mental faculties and finds her greatest pleasure in letters from friends and who are urged to drop her a message of greeting.

Her daughter, Clara Mae Morgan resides in Arlington, Calif., and has been a frequent visitor with her mother.

He who has health has hope, and he who has hope has everything. Arab Proverb.

Mrs. William Allgeier

Miss Sandra Carol Young Is Bride of Mr. William Allgeier

The 1st Christian Church was the scene of the marriage of Sandra Carol Young and William Allgeier June 8th.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allgeier, both of this city.

Reverend J. W. Taenzler performed the 2 o'clock wedding in the presence of 200 guests.

Miss Janice Lancaster was organist and Miss Mary Ann Ryan, soloist.

Ushers were Joe Grauf and Grover Cundall and Donald Freeburg was the best man.

The mother of the bride wore a prissy shirtwaist of baby blue dacon; white gloves and a large white hat, navy blue shoes and purse. The mother of the bridegroom wore a scoop-necked sheath of beige with brown and gold brocade. Her accessories were of beige.

Junior bridesmaids were Jurene Kay Youngs, sister of the bride, and Jerri Ann Allgeier, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical costumes of pale lavender organdy and hats with veils of lavender net. Each wore short white gloves and carried white satin pillows encircled with lavender pom-poms. Jerri Ann carried the bridegroom's ring and Jurene carried the bride's ring.

Miss Rae Mae Henry, who was maid of honor, wore a dress of light medium blue satin backed crystallette. Her dress featured short sleeves, deep V's in back and front bodice and a V in back of the waist which held several folds of skirt to form a bustle back. She wore a headpiece identical to that of the junior bridesmaids. Miss Henry's colonial bouquet was white pom-poms surrounded by lavender leaves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz gown of white bridal satin. Her dress featured long tapered sleeves with small self-buttons up the side. The deep V's in the back and front bodice were accented by flowers of iridescent sequins and pearls. The back of her gown was accented with folds of skirt topped with a bustle of white satin. Her veil was held in place by a lace half-hat of iridescent sequins and pearls.

Following a trip to Colorado, the couple will make their home at 105 1/2 So. 5th Street, Plattsmouth.

Mr. Allgeier is employed at the Gas Company here in Plattsmouth and Mrs. Allgeier works for Western Electric in Omaha. Both are graduates of Plattsmouth High School.
