Passes Instpection

The Zig Zag carries the Seattle Coast Guard registration number, 30V1743. Before leaving Omaha, the craft was boarded by the Coast Guard and given an okay for its downstream voyage.

Four times on his trip from Ft.
Benton and Omaha Murphy had to take to the land. Dams on the Missouri do not have locks and the craft must be loaded and hauled around the dam and relaunched.

Although born and raised on the plains of Montana not far from Ft. Benton where he launched the Zig Zag he is no stranger to the water.

Back in 1927 he put a canoe in the Mississippi river at Minneapolis and paddled to St.
Petersburg, Fla. Again in 1938, he traveled by canoe down the Atlantic Coast Inland Waterway.

Before leaving the Plattsmouth Area, Murphy will visit friends from other days at Glenwood, Iowa.
