

Errors Defeat Locals, 15-4

Nine errors and 9 unearned runs nullified some fairly good pitching Sunday at Papillion and gave Papillion a 15-4 Platte Valley baseball League victory over Plattsmouth.

Papillion scored 3, 4 and 5 runs in the 2nd, 3rd and 5th on totals of 2, one and three hits. In each inning Jon Schuetz was in trouble because of infield errors.

Ed Blair worked the last three innings for Plattsmouth, yielding 3 runs.

The local club got 8 hits. Papillion made 3 errors.

The loss was Plattsmouth's 6th in 7 games in the South Division of the league. Papillion is 5-2 in 2nd place along with Ralston. Millard leads the division with 6-1. Gretna is 4-3 and Lincoln AFB is 1-6.

Elkhorn tops the north with 5-2.

Other Sunday results: Treynor 20, Arlington 7; Kennard 1, Yutan 0; Gretna 3, Lincoln AFB 2; Ralston 10, Millard 8; Elkhorn 8, Ashland 3.

Next Sunday, Plattsmouth is at Kennard.

3 Hurt in Car Accident Near Nehawka

NEHAWKA (Special) — Neighbors and relatives assisted with baling and placing in the barn the hay from 16 acres Tuesday afternoon at the Leo Schram farm.

Those assisting were Edgar Ashton, Bill Seyfer, Boyd Mayfield, Bill Ross, Kelly Thorne, Mark, Ralph and Herman Wieckhorst, Roy and Donald Haupt, Benny and Tom Schram, Robert Knoole, Paul and Melvin Gittinger, Wm. Getchius, Louis Sutter and Clarence Schram.

The neighbors sent food for their lunch and those who served were Mrs. Sutter, Mrs. Paul Gittinger, Mrs. Roy Haupt, Mrs. Ben Schram, Judy Wieckhorst, and Mrs. Mark Wieckhorst.

There were two balers and the other men put the hay in the barn.

Mr. Schram and his daughter Anna Marie and Mrs. Martin Balfour were seriously injured in a car accident last Monday near the Herman Wieckhorst farm about five miles south of Nehawka.

Mrs. Merlen Balfour and Ann Marie Schram were coming home from a 4-H club meeting and Mr. Schram was going after his daughter. There was a head-on collision.

Ann Marie suffered a head injury and her face and neck were badly lacerated. Her father received a compound fracture of his left arm and leg and numerous lacerations. Mrs. Balfour's chest was crushed and all the ribs on one side and several on the other side were broken.

Mrs. Balfour, leader of the Four Leaf Clover club, had taken Beverly Haupt to her home and was enroute to the Schram farm to take Ann Marie home, when the collision occurred. All were taken to St. Mary's Hospital at Nebraska City.

Forty And Eight Enjoys Treat at June Meeting

Thursday evening Cass County Vulture 1218 of the Forty & Eight held their regular June meeting with a very large attendance of the membership to participate in the business session and the delightful Elk dinner that had been provided by Fred Lugsch chef de gare passe.

Max Barenberger, grand correspondent and Earl Fisher, grand chef de train of Omaha were here to attend the meeting and to address the voyagers on the work of this portion of the American Legion organization.

In the business meeting the selection of delegates to the grand promanade of the society was made. E. O. Vroman, Don J. Waga, Emmett Cook of Elmwood, W. D. Fitzpatrick of Louisville, R. T. Guthrie, Dr. P. T. Heineman, past grand chef de gare passe, Loyd Behrend, grand commissaire intendand, Albert Inman and Fred Feldhausen, chef de gare were selected. The promanade will be held at North Platt on June 22 in conjunction with the American Legion state convention. The local members for committee work were named. Don Waga, credentials; E. O. Vroman, resolutions, Dr. P. T. Heineman, nominations.

The vulture received a letter from the state organization relative to individual contributions as a tribute to Father Elmer McFadden of Syracuse, for many years one of the leading workers in the 40 & 8. The genial prelate is engaged in erecting a new church in Syracuse and members are urged to make some donation to his cause.

The vulture received an invitation from Cap H. L. Gayer and Dr. W. J. Snyder, members of the local vulture, to hold a meeting of the vulture at Papillion. The invitation was accepted.

The social feature of the evening was the Elk dinner which Mr. Lugsch had provided and which was cooked by Mrs. Linford Dasher and served by Linford Dasher, Eugene Krings, Orville Julian, Art Waga and E. O. Vroman.

Out of town members attending were Emmett Cook and Ted Brinton, Elmwood, Albert Inman, John Jackman, R. D. Streeter, Walter Stohlman, Graham Jones, W. D. Fitzpatrick, Louisville.

Local VFW Puts Steam In Bingo Petition Drive

Saturday the local VFW put steam in a good day for signers on the petition to place the legalizing of Bingo on the ballot at the November election.

Commander Harry Porter and Senior Vice - Commander Leonard Lutz of Murray ran the stand at 5th and Main Streets and as the result of their labors, there were several hundred names added to the list already raised by the local post.

These with other petitions over the state will be filed at the office of the secretary of state at Lincoln to add to the number already on file. The dead line is July 3rd and it is hoped to have 70,000 signers on petitions by that time and registered at Lincoln. It will be necessary to have 56,000 signers to get on the ballot.

In addition to the VFW the Eagle Lodges over the state are back of the movement to make Bingo legal.

Firecrackers Make For Wild West Days

Saturday evening near the hour of 10 o'clock, residents in the vicinity of Sixth and Avenue A were startled with explosions that resembled Dodge City before Marshal Matt Dillon had cooled the wild west spirit.

It was found that some one had procured some fire crackers and proceeded to stage a shoot and run spree.
