

Errors Sink PVL Team, 'Leftouts' Win by 13-8

Errors
Ten Plattsmouth errors and 11 unearned runs scored by Ralston featured Plattsmouth's 14-4 loss at Ralston in the Platte Valley Baseball League Sunday.
Jon Schuetz and Ed Blair pitched fair ball for Plattsmouth but infield errors kept them behind. It started in the first when Ralston sent 12 hitters to the plate and scored seven runs on six hits.
Ralston got two runs on no hits in the 4th, two on one in the sixth and three on one in the seventh.
Plattsmouth managed its four runs on four hits, the longest a double by Wolever.
It was Plattsmouth's eighth loss in nine games and it is tied for the South Division cellar with the Lincoln AFB team which withdrew from the league and is forfeiting remaining games.

Next league date for the town team is here against Millard Sunday at 2:30.

It also meets Louisville Wednesday at 8 p.m. there and plays a local Legion Junior-aged team here the 4th. Three local players will participate in the league's all-star game Thursday night at Waterloo.

'Leftouts'

The "Leftouts," Plattsmouth's baseball team for boys 14 to 17 won their opening game Sunday at Glenwood, 13-8, over the Glenwood American Legion team.
Dubbed "Leftovers" by manager Paul Kerston because many of them tried out for the town team in the Platte Valley League, the club jumped to a 5-1 first-inning lead and was comfortably ahead throughout.
Todd and Noel combined to pitch good ball for Plattsmouth. Kerston managed 12 hits but Plattsmouth tightened up in the clutches.
Brink and Shown with four hits each led Plattsmouth.
A game announced for Tuesday night against Auburn has been postponed until the following Tuesday, Kerston said today. He said the team will practice at 6:30 Thursday at the South Chicago Avenue field.
Kerston and his team are looking for games. Kerston can be reached at Phone 4660 here.

Cards To Have Omaha Tryouts

Omaha will be one of the sites of the Cardinals' tryout camps when the Red Birds will look for potential big league talent at Omaha Stadium July 9 and 10, it was announced today by farm director Walter Shannon.
Experienced talent hunters will set the young aspirants through their paces starting each morning at 10 p.m. and all players between 17 and 23 are invited to take part.
The Cardinals will supply the balls, bats, and catching equipment with each boy furnishing his own glove, shoes and uniform if he has one.
Any player signed to a contract with one of the Cardinal-operated clubs will be reimbursed for his expenses incident to attending the camp.

To take part in the tryouts an American Legion player must have a letter of approval from either his Legion coach or Post commander.
Brink and Shown with four hits each led Plattsmouth.
A game announced for Tuesday night against Auburn has been postponed until the following Tuesday, Kerston said today. He said the team will practice at 6:30 Thursday at the South Chicago Avenue field.

Large Crowd At VFW Barbecue Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon Wolsver-Lepert post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars staged their annual barbecue at the Hobscheidt farm south of this city, near the Lewiston community center.
This event is held for the purpose of raising funds that will be devoted to the scholarship fund of the post, to be awarded each year to the student selected by the public schools for outstanding rank and qualifications. The award was given this year to Larry Cundall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cundall, Sr.
It is estimated that the number attending was between 400 and 500.
A. C. McLean was general chairman of the event, and was ably assisted by Fred Draper, Herb Neely, Bruce Lanam, Leonard Lutz, Rudy Stoll, Lloyd Fitch, Edgar Kief, Harry Porter and Henry Hobscheidt.
There was over 500 pounds of beef used in the feast and this was prepared by Sam Arn and A. C. McLean. Fred Bishop had charge of preparing the beans and cold slaw for the dinner.

Auto Fire Causes Alarm Thursday Nite

Thursday evening shortly after 9 o'clock the fire department was called to 620 Chicago avenue, where an auto was reported on fire. When members of the department reached the scene it was found that a 1956 Buick belonging to John Downey, was afire. It seems that a child of the family had dropped a dime in the seat of the car, seeking to recover it had lit a match and caused a small fire. The damage to the interior of the car is estimated at $25.

More excitement was occasioned by a misunderstanding of the location of the fire than the fire itself, it was reported as near the residence of Attorney F. M. Casey, the name being confused with that of T. J. Cacy on west Oak street and the fire truck was driven out to west Oak street, a large number of cars followed out Washington avenue, occasioned quite a confusion in traffic on North 6th street, Washington avenue and Oak street.

Dr. A. E. Johnson Back From Alaska

Dr. A. E. Johnson returned home Thursday from a vacation trip that took him to Alaska to enjoy a most pleasant stay in this fascinating country, that bids fair to be the forty-ninth state of the union.
