What about ELECTRIC HEATING for your home?

It's available now—true heating comfort!

According to estimates, 80% of all homes—even new ones—are uncomfortably heated in winter. But now, electric heating equipment has been developed to heat your whole house properly, or supplement the heat in any room or area. And low electric rates in this area make this newest and best home heating economical!

YOU CAN ENJOY THESE ADVANTAGES:
Electric heat is as clean... safe... fast... and noiseless as electric light. It saves space—no chimneys, flues, or furnace space are needed. It can be completely concealed. Individual rooms or even areas can be individually regulated to maintain proper comfort automatically. Electric heat consumes no oxygen because there is no combustion!

HEAT YOUR WHOLE HOUSE
Electric heating embedded in ceilings, wall panels, or baseboards provides sun-like warmth. It eliminates cold floors and drafts. It is the trend in new homes—and homes in this area which are insulated properly now can be heated electrically at reasonable cost.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR COST?
Electric heat costs less to install—no expensive plumbing or ductwork. It saves redecoration cost. No moving parts means low maintenance cost. No yearly cleaning. And operating cost compares favorably with combustion-type fuels now used in this area.

GET RID OF COLD SPOTS
Hard-to-heat areas in your home can be made more comfortable now with supplemental electric heat. Ideal for bathroom... or where the children play. No vents, no fumes.

The NEW Trend in Heating

- Radiant Cable: Concealed completely in ceiling or walls. Warmth at lower temperatures.
- Baseboard Heating: At outside walls warm by convection and radiantly along floors.
- Radiant Panels: Suitable heat without drafts! Ideal for bath and other areas.
- Built-in Wall Units: Heat entire rooms—or cold spots. Some have fan for more effect.
