Air Parcel Mailing Rules Liberalized

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today that size and weight limitations on air parcels to overseas military post offices are greatly liberalized effective July 1, 1958.

Air parcels have been limited to two pounds and a combined length and girth of 30 inches.

Such parcels for most overseas military post offices may now weigh up to 70 pounds and have combined length and girth up to 100 inches.

However, parcels destined for military post offices located in certain countries will be limited to 50 pounds and 72 inches length and girth combined because of internal regulations in these countries which make such limitations necessary.
