Time's Short for Deer Application
LINCOLN — Resident hunters have just a few days in which to apply for Nebraska's Nov. 1 to 5 rifle season for deer. M. O. Steen, Game Commission director said the deadline is Aug. 1.

Archers on the other hand, he said, may apply for a bow- and arrow permit through the last day of the Sept. 31 season. Cost of either the rifle or archery permit is $10.

Any resident 16 years of age or over is eligible to apply for a deer permit. Hunters are no longer restricted to one permit every three years but may apply each year if they wish.

Applications are available from county clerks, conservation officers and Game Commission district offices in Alliance, North Platte, Bassett, Norfolk and Lincoln.

DON'T SUFFER Through The HAY FEVER SNEEZIN' SEASON

Three out of four allergy victims can be helped through proper care — so state medical authorities. Yes — three out of four persons who suffer the miseries and irritations of Pollen allergies can expect welcome relief to follow an early visit to the doctor. Research and experience show that hay fever treatments are twice as effective when given before the hay fever season starts than after. So don't suffer needlessly through the "sneezing season". See your doctor now... then come to us for the medicines he prescribes and the accessories he recommends.
