The couple are making their home at 821 Eleventh Corso, in Nebraska City.

Miss Parker Is Wed To Don Conyers

Bouquets of gladioli and garden flowers decorated the sanctuary of St. Mary's Catholic church Saturday morning for the wedding of Miss Betty Jo Parker and Donald Conyers. The Rev. Richard Steinemann solemnized the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess E. Parker of Nebraska City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Conyers, Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Frank Bataillon played the wedding march and recessional. Soloists were Mrs. Larry Swartz of Kansas City, Mo., and Miss Carolyn Huff of Nebraska City.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Jesse Parker. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over net lace featured a sweetheart neckline accented with iridescent sequin trim and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was of tulle with an apronette of lace which fell over an under skirt of ruffled tulle. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion lace was held by a jeweled crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of American beauty roses.

Miss Jo Ann White of Douglas was maid of honor. The bride's sisters, Mrs. Patricia Byrom of Valley was the bridesmatron and Miss Jessica Parker was the junior bridesmaid. Flower girl was Miss Alice Conaway, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and ringbearers were nephews of the bridegroom, Michael and Ricky Golden, of Onawa, Ia.

Richard Avard III, of Omaha was the best man and Lyle Woods of Bellevue was the groomsman. Ushers were Harlan Golden, Onawa, Ia., and Gerald Brewer of Omaha.

A reception was held in the church hall following the ceremony. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Casper Boerner, cut the cake assisted by Ruth Morris of Lincoln. Mrs. Richard Lutz and Mrs. Harlan Golden poured the punch and coffee.

Mrs. Robert Heng Jr., was in charge of the guest book. Helping at the gift table were Mrs. Richard Stock, Mrs. Robert Shirley, Mrs. Jim Zarin and Miss Karen Woods.

Following a short honeymoon the couple will reside at Onawa. After attending the summer session at Peru State Teachers college Mrs. Conyers will teach first grade in Onawa Public school.

Mr. Conyers is employed by Honiggers Building Corporation. He graduated from the Plattsmouth Schools in 1955.

Garden Club Receives Flower Show School Directive Books

Plattsmouth Federated Garden Club were entertained in the home of Mrs. Nellie Spangler with Mrs. Lena Hansel as co-hostess, the afternoon of July 21.

Mrs. Clarence Akeson, president, followed the usual procedure of opening the meeting with a prayer, pledge to the flag and the reading of the club's poem.

The flowers named by the members now blooming in their gardens resulted in the gladioli as the most popular. Mrs. Nellie Spangler named the "Honesty Plant or Money Tree," a most unusual specimen.

Flower Show School Directive Books were distributed. Unusual flowers and plants were discussed. Perennial landscaping and annuals were studied by each member participating in reading the instructions.

Mrs. Akeson read an article, "How to arrange and plan to plant a living Christmas tree in your yard." Mrs. Hansel described and suggested flowers and vines to plant to beautify your yard, saying "your back yard appearance describes your personality."

In the quiz contest, Mrs. Sybil Hetrick drew the lucky number, the prize being a potted double rose begonia.

In September, the club plans to charter a bus to visit Waukesha Park, Iowa, and will have a picnic at that time.

Mrs. R. B. Keller invited the club to meet with her for the August meeting.

Refreshments were served and all enjoyed studying the flowers and shrubs of the season.

Mrs. Frank Linder was a guest.
