Greatest Show on Earth to Appear at Ak-Sar-Ben.

The Greatest Show on Earth—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus—will make its only appearance in either Iowa or Nebraska at Ak-Sar-Ben Field August 22 through August 24, officials of the Omaha civic organization have announced.

Traditionally labeled "The Big One" by the entertainment field, the show will have 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. performances in front of Ak-Sar-Ben Grandstand Friday, August 22, and Saturday, August 23, and 2 p.m. and 6:30 ("twilight") performances on Sunday, August 24. Tickets are now available at Ak-Sar-Ben, 201 Patterson Building, Omaha, with reserved seats $3 and $4 and unreserved seats $2. Prices include all taxes, and children under 12 will be admitted for one-half price.

This year's show includes 18 acts that have never before appeared in this country in addition to many others that keep the three huge rings in constant activity. There are four new super-spectacles, including "1,000 Nights," a glorious extravaganza; "Up I Go," a stunning aerial ballet; "Licks My Britches," an outstanding western production with stage coaches, covered wagons, and broncs along with the show's blue ribbon horses; and "Yankee Doodle Do," a rousing grand finale.

Naturally, there will be scores and scores of animals, featuring Hans Naumann's Royal Bengal tigers; Schlipf's world's all-time greatest chimpanzee act; Yvonne's dogs, the most renowned of all Europe's animal acts; Klatner's bears and, of course, Hugo Schmitt's elephants.

Oldest and best known of the Ringling elephant herd is big Minyak, who is now 55 years of age and is unusually docile. He and 24 other pachyderms will fill the three rings at all six performances in Omaha.
