Pat Boone Star in "April Love"

Pat Boone and Shirley Jones combine their golden voices and refreshing personalities in "April Love." Twentieth Century-Fox's story of youthful romance which will be showing at the Cass Theatre Sunday - Tuesday, Aug. 17-19.

Five songs by Paul Francis Webster and Sammy Fain brighten the story of young love and the authentic beauty of scenes filmed on the lush breeding farms of Kentucky, plus exciting harness races and a County Fair sequence, give "April Love" an up to the minute appeal. The young, attractive cast headed by the nation's No. 1 recording star, Pat Boone, adds freshness and charm to George Agnew Chamberlain's novel from which Winston Miller fashioned the screenplay. The songs which Pat and Shirley sing are "April Love," "Clover in the Meadow," "Give Me a Gentle Girl," "Bentonville Fair" and "Do It Yourself."—Adv.
