5 from County At TB Meeting

Five Cass County TB volunteers joined TB workers from other counties Sept. 23 at the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln, Neb., to plan Nebraska's 1958 annual Christmas Seal Sale which opens November 14.

They were Mrs. LaVell K. Swartz, Eagle, County Representative; Miss Marie Schewpe, Murdock, secretary; Mrs. Harry Gobelman, Union, vice chairman; Mrs. Oliver Schiber, Plattsmouth, board member; Miss Martha Schewpe, Murdock, board member.

The Christmas Seal chairmen discussed the results of their local Seal Sales and compared them with the state and national figures. The health education chairmen met at the same time in a separate session to discuss use of materials and also their responsibility as a local committee to further the control program for tuberculosis that has been going on for over fifty years.

This was the fifth of a series of meetings conducted this month over the state by the Nebraska TB Association.

Cass County members are making extensive plans for the Christmas Seal Sales as our county fell behind in their amount last year.
