

October

The fields are harvested and bare, And winter whistles through the square, October dresses in flame and gold Like a woman afraid of growing old.

October, now upon us, is thought by many to be the most beautiful month of the year. October was the eighth month of the year in the ancient Roman calendar, and that is where the Oct comes from in October — meaning eighth.

In the United States, October brings the first really cool weather of Fall, produces a majestic panorama in the woods and forests of the nation, and produces great sports events, with the midseason climaxes of the college football year.

It is the month in which Columbus landed in America, on October 12, 1492. The cornerstone of the White House was laid on October 13th, 1792. A prize of $500 had been offered for a design for the White House and James Hoban, an architect from Charleston, South Carolina, won the prize.

Of more current interest, October 14th is the birthday of President Eisenhower and the month also contains the birthday anniversaries of several ex-Presidents, among them being John Adams, the second President of the United States, whose birthday falls on October 19, Chester Arthur, the 21st President of the United States, who was born October 4th.

Hallowe'en, which falls on the last day of the month, had its beginning long before the dawn of the Christian Era. Today, Hallowe'en is not a mysterious, mystic observance, and has little religious significance.

The custom of wearing robes and masks on Hallowe'en originated in early times when it was thought that witches and ghosts were most likely to wander about on that night. This is part of the mystic atmosphere which surrounded Hallowe'en among the early people, including the Druids, who also thought the lord of death called together the souls of the wicked at Hallowe'en and condemned them to inhabit the bodies of animals.

Residents of Union under the direction of Philip Rihn visited the Nebraska Masonic Home to present a short concert. Rev. McGayghy gave the scripture lesson to start the program. The program consisted of numbers by the orchestra as well as individual numbers. Taking part were Mrs. Roy Upton and Mrs. Lewis Mougey, Miss Esther McGayghy, Miss Mildred Burbee, Miss Ruth Morris, Misses Angria and Mina Ervin. Mr. Rihn was taken ill during the afternoon and was taken to an Omaha hospital — Mrs. Rex Peters of Greenwood was agreeably surprised on her visit to this city to find her purse and $10 that she had misplaced while shopping. She discovered the loss when reaching Ashland and retraced her journey to this city. She had left her purse on a chair in the Soemnichsen store and the employees had placed it in the safe until they could get in touch with her — Matthew Sedlak Sr., of this city who was injured while at work was in serious condition at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha. An x-ray examination it was disclosed that he had suffered the fracture of both heels, a possible cracked hip bone, and the shoulder may have been fractured. He will be at the hospital for some time — Otto Meisinger was operated on at the Clarkson hospital for a severe attack of appendicitis — One of the hunting parties from this city, out at the weekend seeking pheasants, was composed of Clell, Lester, and Leon Gansamer, Ernest Hild of near Murray and John Kalasck of this city. They were hunting near Burwell on the farm of relatives of Mrs. Kalasck.

The first pound of butter that is made at the plant has been already spoken for by the Chamber of Commerce for $500 — Joe Krejci of this city, playing on the Peru State Teachers college football team, passed to Hoffman for 45 yards and a touchdown tying the game with St. Louis university 6 to 6 — At the First Christian church in Lincoln occurred the marriage of Mrs. Minnie Pickard and Mr. John Alwin of this city. The wedding was very quiet and the bridal couple attended by Mrs. Joel Messersmith, aunt of the bride and Golda Graham, a cousin of the bride — Plattsmouth lost to North of Omaha in a football game 12 to 7. The Plattsmouth score came in the third quarter, a succession of passes by Bob Hadraba, brought the ball to the North 20 yard line. Hadraba passed to Bob Hartford for the touchdown and the placement by Fitch was good.
