VA Hospital 'Open House' Set for Nov. 10

To most people, the Veterans Administration Hospital at 4104 Woolworth Avenue in Omaha is a huge and beautiful building. They know veterans are treated there, but, for the most part, the building seems like any other hospital.

Doctor Blanton E. Russell, Manager of the Omaha Hospital has invited Plattsmouth residents to see how the VA treats the disabled veterans on Nov. 10 from 2 to 4 p. m. when the hospital will hold "Open House".

Open House at the Omaha hospital is a Veterans Day thought of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, Sumner G. Whittier, who has requested that all VA installations throughout the country be open to the public on the day before the National holiday.

The VA Volunteer service representatives will assist the hospital staff in escorting visitors through much of the hospital and pointing out various exhibits and demonstrations set up for that day.

Sister To Attend Wedding, Tour Abroad

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hild were dinner hosts to Mrs. Hild's sister, Mrs. Hugo of Omaha. Mrs. Heyn leaves Wednesday on a two-month trip to Europe, making the trip by plane.

Homemaking — Notes —

It's time to begin thinking about the foods you will be serving your family on the festive Thanksgiving table. The big meat item on most menus will be turkey. It's not too soon to begin preparing for America's favorite Thanksgiving fowl.

Perhaps you are wondering how large a turkey will be needed to serve your family or the company you have invited. The quantity you buy should be determined after considering the method of preparation as well as the number of persons to be served.

Generally — from one half to three quarters of a pound of fowl per person is allowed for roasting. Recipes often indicate the amount to purchase.

Birds of certain sizes have more meat on them than others. As a rule, the extremely small and extremely large ones do not have as much meat proportionately as do those of medium weight. Also, large breasted birds have more meat than do others. For roasting or baking, the 5 or 6 pound chicken or 10 to 12 pound turkey hen is generally considered an economical size.

How much stuffing will you need for your turkey or other fowl. A general rule is for every pound of bird, count one cup of crumbs; then if the bird weighs 10 pounds or less, subtract one cup from the total; if the bird weighs more than 10 pounds subtract 2 cups from the total.

A moist type of dressing is built on a foundation of rice, potatoes, apples, or of bread crumbs with added liquid. Since rice stuffing swells considerably, use one cup less of boiled rice than of bread crumbs in any recipe.

To make good crumbs for the dryish type of stuffing, use medium-dry bread 2 or 3 days old. Cut each loaf in two and "fork" out the inside, leaving the crusts. Pick the pieces of bread apart

Mrs. Knaup, Son To South Dakato
WEeping WATER — Mrs. Henry Knaup and son, Rodney Knaup, were visiting this past week with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil F. Stilleghouer of Gettysburg, S. D.

Mrs. Stilleghouer is the former Ruth Fitch of Elmwood. Rodney Knaup also visited with Roger Goodhart of Aberdeen, S. D.

with the tins of the fingers, until all the crumbs are fine and even in size. Crumbs prepared now should be kept in a covered container in a cold place.

Ordinarily, a one-pound loaf of white bread 2 or 3 days old makes about 4 cups of light, fluffy crumbs without crusts. Mrs. Nancy Sutton, Home Extension Agent
