

Auburn Outwades Plattsmouth In Homecoming Game, 32-19

THERE THEY ARE! — The official and player in left foreground have hands raised high as if to signal to the rest of those at the Homecoming football game Friday night that they'd found the scene of action. There was rain, Plattsmouth and Auburn High schools labored under the most appalling conditions to provide a good Homecoming football game here Friday night.

Auburn, the better mudder showing terrific breakaway speed despite ooze resulting from driving rain most of the first half, won 32-19 to complete an unbeaten season with 8 victories.

Plattsmouth, which fought back from a deficit the entire game led by the running, passing and punting of Tom Winscot, brought credit to itself in spite of losing.

The local Blue Devils in Bill Hawkins' first year as head coach, wound up with a record of three wins, four losses and a tie.

Friday night, a Homecoming crowd of fair size considering the weather saw an offensive display which would have been most satisfactory on a dry field under clear skies.

The back-breaker for Plattsmouth was a punt runback the length of the field in the third quarter when the Blue Devils pulled up to within range of going ahead for the first time.

It was an audacious thing for Auburn to do.

Winscot had kicked from a about the Auburn 45. Plattsmouth covered well and the slippery ball bounded around inside the five-yard line.

Then, against all odds, half-back Gary Dalton (25) fielded the ball and had to run laterally half the width of the field to get any running room. He found a lot then and went all the way after several near stops.

It made the score 25-13, instead of 19-13. It put Auburn out of range with about half the third quarter left.

Before that, the scoring had also come in quick strikes.

Auburn tallied with 9:53 remaining in the first quarter on the 4th play of the game after Plattsmouth's kickoff. Dalton ran 36 from his 28 to get it started after a 3-yard PHS penalty.

Quarterback Dick Tushla (25) ran the last 29 yards on third down of the next series. His kick was wide.

It took the Blue Devils 5 minutes to equalize.

Like Auburn, they went 77 yards. Winscot ran for 21 and on third down of the next series got outside to go 54 yards for the score. A plunge for point failed.

Auburn went ahead again with 2:49 left in the quarter, driving 82 yards in 7 plays. Dalton and Tushla traded plays until Tushla punched over from the one on second down.

Dalton ran the point and it was Auburn, 13-6.

The visitors made it 19-6 on an 86-yard drive in the first minutes of the second period. Ed Johnson ran 65 yards for the score. The kick failed.

Plattsmouth got that one back shortly before the half.

Guard Jerry Haase recovered an Auburn fumble on the Auburn 36. A "piling on" penalty put Plattsmouth on the 20. Winscot's 13-yard pass to Jim Shown on 4th down brought the score. They repeated for the point and it was 19-13 with the home fans taking hope.

Then came the fantastic punt return to turn the tide.

After that, Plattsmouth tallied in the third after Ken Pritchard's fumble recovery on the Auburn 45.

Winscot ran for 14 and 20 and Al Dasher for 6. Winscot hit

Shown in the flat with a 6-yard scoring pass. The pass for the extra point failed.

At 19-25, the Blue Devils didn't have quite enough left to catch up and Auburn seized its next opportunity, still in the third quarter, to score.

A "piling on" penalty against Plattsmouth and a 19-yard pass by Tushla were the big gainers. Dalton plunged a yard to score. The kick was good.

That was the scoring and neither team had a first down the last quarter until Auburn moved to the Plattsmouth 10 as the game ended.

Most of the crowd stuck it out till the end but it was just too wet for anyone's good.

An ironical footnote was that the field was sprinkled prior to the game to allay the dust which had bothered a lot of the previous game.

Basketball Work Begins at PHS

Some 70 Plattsmouth High basketball squad candidates began workouts today with Coach John Adkins, readying for a Dec. 5 season opener here against Glenwood.

Today through Wednesday, there'll be separate sessions for one group made up of seniors and lettermen and another group of the freshmen, sophomores and juniors.

After Wednesday, Adkins will cut the squad to 25 for the varsity. There'll also be reserve and freshman squads under Coaches Stan Cole and Bill Hawkins.

Freshmen will begin practice the following Monday.

Cecil McKnight is coach of the 7th-8th grade squad.

Practice this week will be limited to the three days because the junior class play has the gym Thursday and Friday.

Adkins will have 6 of last year's 11 lettermen back. They are centers J. C. Draper and Ken Pritchard, forward Al Dasher and guards Jim Shown, Tom Winscot and Larry Marler.

Graduating this spring were Tom Martin, Ken Dasher, Larry Cundall, Bill Long and Bob Hutton. Martin, Dasher and Cundall were Ak-Sar-Ben All-Conference selections. Dasher and Cundall were also Twin Rivers All Stars.

Plattsmouth has a 16-game schedule, plus tournaments, as follows (home games being at 8 p. m. to be preceded by reserve games at 8:30):

December—6, Glenwood; 9, at Tecumseh; 12, Fairbury; 19, Auburn.

January—9, at Westside; 10, Pawnee City; 16, Crete; 20-23, Ak-Sar-Ben Tournament at Bellevue; 27, Beatrice; 30, at Lincoln NE.

February—6, Wahoo; 7, at Nebraska City; 13, Ralston; 14, at Falls City; 17, at Bellevue; 20, at University High; 27, at Lincoln SE.

Police Court

The weekend was very quiet in police court as the docket revealed this morning at the office of Judge J. H. Graves.

Two cases of alleged illegal parking were on the docket, one against Jack Todd and one against James Dietl. Each of the defendants received $1 and costs, or $5 in both cases.

Saturday Lawrence Spangler appeared in the court to answer to the charge of disturbing the peace of Larry T. and Carol Reeves. The defendant changed his plea to guilty and received a fine of $50 and costs or a total of $54.
