Ruth Monning — Phone 5-2167

Calendar: Christian Ladies Council, Dec. 26; Town Kensington, Jan. 2.
The Bluebird club met with Mrs. Ray Parson Dec. 16. Lena Riecke conducted a Christmas story using candles. The lesson on "Laws" was given by Mrs. Eveland. Mrs. P. Bornemeier gave Christmas ideas. Mrs. McDonald was assistant hostess. Mary Ann Bogenriet was secretary and Sandra Mutchler treasurer for December Brownie meetings. All the girls made holiday corsages for their mothers. Attending the wedding of their nephew Roger Walker to Miss Joan Loseke, both of Columbus, Dec. 20 were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mills and Mrs. Ruth Monning. Also Dave and Judy Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Mills attended.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Emily Hall were Mrs. Bertha Fitch and Ahlene, Mrs. Cecil Stillebauer and Anna McFall.

Mrs. Fred Wilhelm of San Francisco and her aunt, Sadie Trumble of Eagle, visited aunts Bertha Fitch, Anna McFall and Emily Hall and other relatives. Mrs. Cecil Stillebauer (Ruth Fitch) of Gettysburg, S. D., came last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Fitch, Ahlene and others. Her husband came Friday and they were to stay until the 28th.

Arriving Saturday to spend a whole week with her mother, Mrs. Mary Williams and sister, Helen Schneider, were the Glenn Nicklas family. Their home is at Curtis where Mr. Nicklas teaches agriculture. They are planning a Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Sid Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Atchison and Mr. and Mrs. James Moore and Joan of Lincoln as guests.

Those attending the Methodist church Sunday were in for a treat. The junior choir occupied half the stage. There were more than 30 wearing white capes with large red bows of ribbon at their necks. They sang beautifully. They were trained by Marjorie Clements and Daisy Moore, Virginia Dennis, Dorothy West and Margaret Hall assisting. There was also a full-sized adult choir, John Hall singing a solo and Mrs. Moore accompanying on the organ.

A poinsettia plant was presented to the church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. William Brunkow by their four daughters of Lincoln, formerly of Elmwood. Eleanor, husband and baby and Margaret were visitors at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. LeFever have completed the purchase of the Mary Miller property and expect to move there the middle of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Pratt are moving into Mrs. Kuehn's house while Mrs. Kuehn and Alice will spend about two months in California, having left for there Saturday night. The Pratts' new home is about ready for plastering.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Souchee observed their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday by having open house for relatives and close friends. About 40 or 50 guests came from Talmage, Bradshaw, Lincoln, Hampton, Murdock, Greenwood and the Elmwood teachers. Mrs. Kyles of Lincoln poured. Mrs. Madeline Schmidt of Lincoln who stood up at their wedding was present. Mr. Souchee is superintendent of Elmwood schools and Mrs. Souchee teachers in the grades.

Mr. Souchee has announced that school begins Dec. 29 and then will close for New Year's Day, one day only.

E. J. Stovall of Lincoln called on his mother, Mrs. Laura Stovall Friday. He works for Stevenson's Supply, Lincoln.

Mrs. Elda Lenz entertained at a dinner Monday in honor of her granddaughter, Velda Lenz, on the latter's 10th birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kowsky and Jackie and the Orville Lenz family.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking to visit his mother, Bertha Oehlerking, who is a shut-in, were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rosenow, Mrs. F. W. Lorenz and Mrs. Gussie Jockens.

Mrs. Joe Kunz and brother Henry Bornemeier went to Yorkville and Oswego, Ill., to see their brothers and sisters and the Jerry Bornemeiers. They brought Mrs. Jerry Bornemeier and two boys, Micky and Danny back with them for a visit here.

Word has been received that a former pastor of the EUB church who has lived in Crete and served an Episcopal church there was ordained as a priest Dec. 16. He is Rev. Theodore H. Kampman.

The children's program at the Christian church was Sunday evening.

A rest room has been added at the Christian church and other remodeling done.

A shower was held for newly-weds Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fairfield at the Callahan Community

Obituary of Lydia Squires Bloodgood

Mrs. Lydia Squires Bloodgood was born September 7, 1890 at Weeping Water, Nebr., and passed away in the Portland Heart Hospital at Portland, Ore., Nov. 27, 1958 at the age of 68 years, 2 months and 20 days. She was married to Howard Bloodgood May 4, 1909. To this union were born four boys and two girls, the girls dying in infancy.

The family moved to Louisville in 1925 and made their home here until 1951 when they moved to Portland, Ore., to make their home. Mr. Bloodgood passed away a few years ago.

Mrs. Bloodgood was a member of the Louisville Rebekah and Royal Neighbor lodges and a short time ago received the 50 year pin of the Royal Neighbors. Surviving her are her four sons, Harold of Portland, Ore.; Jack of Oakland, Calif.; M. Sgt. Dewain of Ft. Lewis, Wash.; and Bob of Portland, Ore.; three sisters, Mrs. Joe Woolhiser of Louisville; Mrs. Myrtle Wilson of Lincoln; and Mrs. Irma Sylvester of Gardena, Calif.; and two brothers, Ben Squires of McCook, Nebr.; and Dewey Squires of Coolidge, Ariz. Three brothers and three sisters preceded her in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Brandenburg and family have moved from their home on Sand Hill to a farm east of Springfield which they recently purchased.

Mrs. John Hutchinson had the misfortune to fall at her home last Saturday and break her arm. She was taken to an Omaha hospital where she was given treatment and released. She is staying for a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Baker in Omaha.

Mrs. Funke and her pupils visited one day last week with Harry Wirth at the home of church Dec. 17. They were married Nov. 29 at the Wesleyan Methodist church in Lincoln and have an apartment in Havelock.

Clarence Rueter had the misfortune last Saturday to have a blowout with his pickup which overturned. He was thrown out, getting badly bruised but no bones were broken. He will have to take it easy several days.

Arriving at the Clark Gonzales home to spend Christmas was their son Merle McWilliams and family, Climax, Colo. Before Christmas they expect the Charles Gonzales families to come.

Dr. Betty Clements is here from Phoenix, Ariz., to spend Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements and other relatives. She expects to fly back Jan. 4.

Mrs. Clista Holmes of Douglas, Wyo., is a visitor at Alma Clements' home.

Alice Pankonin. Harry enjoyed the children's visit very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jensen and Raymond of Lincoln visited Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Larsen and other relatives in Louisville. Raymond has just recently received his discharge from service and is attending college in Lincoln.

Linda and Jerry Woolhiser of Omaha spent the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward took her grandchildren to Ashland Saturday afternoon to the Gay-day. Little Mike Luellen stayed with Mrs. Charles Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Grell were Sunday evening callers at the Joe Woolhiser home.

Among those attending the Grade School Operetta Wednesday evening were Mrs. Lyle Beck and daughters, Mrs. Ed Grell and Larry and Mrs. Amos Beck and Elaine of South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Switzer and Mrs. Kenneth Luellen and Nada Jean of South Bend were shopping in Nebraska City Monday.
