AK-SAR-BEN...

NON-PROFIT LIKE YOUR OWN COUNTY FAIRS

Like the County Fairs and the State Fair of Nebraska, Ak-Sar-Ben is exempt from taxation because its property and its activities are devoted to agricultural, educational and charitable purposes. Its annual Live Stock Exposition features the largest 4-H Beef Show in the world.

Like the State Fair and some of the County Fairs, Ak-Sar-Ben conducts various activities to produce revenues for its vast program for the betterment of Nebraska. One of these activities is horse racing. Racing in Nebraska cannot be conducted for private profit and, therefore, Ak-Sar-Ben, like the State Fair and the various County Fairs which conduct race meets, must use all of its proceeds for agricultural, educational and charitable projects.

This we are proud to do.

The revenue from thoroughbred racing goes to 4-H Clubs and FFA; to State and University Extension Services for agricultural experiments; to County Fairs; to maintain more than 200 scholarships and fellowships; and to communities hit by disaster.

Thoroughbred racing profits go to you, your community, and your state. There are no private profits, only public profits.
