Local People Are Back From South

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lytle and children, Bobby and Edith, are home from a holiday stay in Florida, a much deserved vacation. They headquartered at Miami and from there took in the many interesting spots of that part of the United States.

On their return home they had a pleasant surprise afforded them at the Coffee Shop that they operate. The staff at the shop had taken advantage of the absence of the owners to do a fine job of freshening up the place. It was bright and glittering for the reopening Monday.

Paul E. Fauquet, Attorney

Man Held Here On Forgery Charge

Bernard L. Wondra, 28, of Lincoln entered a plea of "guilty" to passing a forged check in County Court Wednesday and was bound over to District Court. He is being held in County Jail in lieu of a $1,000 bond.

Wondra was taken into custody in Plattsmouth Tuesday night after passing checks for $38.50 and $45.50.

At the B & H Shoe Store the clerks became suspicious and summoned Wondra back to the store for further identification and in the meantime called the sheriff's office.

Sheriff Tom Solomon said Wondra had been staying in an Omaha hotel under a fictitious name and that he was wanted in a number of other Nebraska counties on check charges.

Wondra told the sheriff he had received a sentence of 3 years for breaking and entering in Hall County.
