Mrs. Grassman Dies after Freak Road Accident

LOUISVILLE (Special)—Mrs. Charles Grassman, 49, of Columbus, died Friday morning in a Kansas City hospital of injuries received in a freak accident on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grassman, former Louisville residents, were driving to Florida for a winter vacation. Near the town of Harrisonville, Mo., they met a truck carrying signs. A sign slipped off the truck and struck the windshield of the Grassman car.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Grassman were injured in the accident and were taken to a hospital where Mrs. Grassman died Friday.

Mr. Grassman was brought home Friday but is in serious condition. His injury was caused by glass penetrating his eye.

Mrs. Grassman is a sister of Mark Partridge of Louisville, and they had lived in Louisville for many years, having moved to Columbus when Mr. Grassman was transferred there by his employer, the Lyman Richey Company.

Funeral was Monday in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Partridge drove to Columbus Monday to attend the funeral.

Death Of Life Long Resident Of Nehawka

Mrs. Ida Jane Lopp, 90, a life long resident of the Nehawka community, passed to the last rest Thursday afternoon at St. Mary's hospital, Nebraska City. Death came after a lingering illness that has covered the past four years. Her death removes one of the pioneer residents of the county and whose life has been interwoven with the development of her community.

She was born on a farm near Nehawka on April 28, 1869, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ingwersen, pioneer residents. In the community of her birth she spent her girlhood, and gave her years in her care of her home and family and will be greatly missed by those who had the privilege of knowing her.

She was married to Henry W. Lopp, who preceded her in death on June 29, 1917 at the home north of Nehawka.

She was a member of the United Brethren church, the Royal Neighbors and a very devout worker in the Ladies Aid society of her church.

Survivors include a son, George Lopp, Nehawka; a daughter, Mrs. Abbie Lacy, Los Angeles; a brother, Richard Ingwersen, Weeping Water; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Mast, Tonka, Okla.; Mrs. Laura Wilson, San Diego, Calif.; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of the Caldwell-Linder funeral home in this city, with Rev. Ivan Kilpatrick, of the Evangelistic United Brethren church conducting the service. Music for the service was by Mrs. Twyle Hodges, organist.

Burial was at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery near the old home with William Jorgensen, Guy Murdoch, Vilas Ketelhut, Marion Hoback, Merritt Sodson and Glen Rutledge serving as casket bearers.

The Caldwell - Linder funeral home of this city were in charge of arrangements.
