Mrs. Gleason Hosts Gamma Chapter

The Gamma Chapter of the Alpha Delta Kappa held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Dale Gleason.

President Mrs. Lloyd Fitch opened the meeting according to ritual. Chaplain Mrs. Dale Gleason gave the opening prayer.

Correspondence was read from the state president urging the chapter to help design the Nebraska Alpha Delta Kappa flag and to assist with the National Convention of the Classroom Teachers in Lincoln Feb. 7.

Plans were made to invite the state president to the February meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. McLean.

Robert Faris took a group picture of the chapter which will be used in state and national bulletins.

Mrs. Katherine Sandin and Margaret Kroese were made National Convention chairmen.

The chapter agreed to enter the jingle and song contest and submit favors for the National Convention.

The meeting was closed and the group enjoyed slides of Yellowstone and Teton National Parks shown by Mrs. Dale Gleason and lunch was served by the hostess.

WSWS Of Mynard Church Meets

The Women's Society of World Service of the Mynard Evangelical United Brethren Church met at the home of Mrs. Wayne Schneider Friday. Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp was assistant hostess.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fred Arnold conducted the business meeting. It was voted to hold a silent auction at the February meeting.

Mrs. Roy Cole, assisted by Mrs. Willis Cole presented the lesson, "Understanding Is Better Than Silver." The lesson brought out facts about the Middle East which helps us to have a better understanding of these people, their customs and habits.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Thomas Grosshans, Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp and Mrs. Arthur Wetenkamp was chosen to make plans for the World Day of Prayer Feb. 1.

Mrs. Royal Smith and Mrs. Willis Cole were chosen to select a missionary book for the study course of the organization.

The meeting was closed with a poem, "Take Time To Live," read by Mrs. Fred Arnold.

Tidy Blue Birds

The Tidy Blue Bird group and leader Mrs. Doris Hinz and assistant leader, Mrs. Hazel Adkins met Wednesday after school. They were guests of Mary Ann Dingman.

Cassandra Russell presided at the business meeting. Diane Reimer read the minutes and Mary Jo Hinz called roll and gave the treasurer's report.

Games were played and each girl told what she received for Christmas.

Mary Ann served a treat at the close of the meeting.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

The Tri County Lassies met at the home of Velene Stall on Jan. 10. Roll call was answered with a prepared food containing milk.

Velene Stall demonstrated how to make creamed beef on toast; Diana Bray, how to prepare and serve grapefruit; Judy Oberle, how to draw threads to straighten material for luncheon cloths and napkins that members are all to make their next project.

Members received checked record books back from last year.

Next meeting will be Feb. 14 at Donna Stall's. There will be a 25 cent Valentine hanky exchange.

After the meeting, the Lassies had lunch and games and sang club songs. — Velene Stall, reporter.

Laughing Lassies

The Laughing Lassies 4-H Club met at the home of Sandra Meisinger Jan. 10.

The meeting was conducted by president Barbara Schneider. Roll call was answered by naming a milk drink or a food containing milk. Members discussed egg dishes they are to make by the next meeting.
