

Proposed Unit for Louisville Methodist

Educational Building for Louisville Church Planned

The accompanying picture is an architect's drawing of the educational unit for the First Methodist Church in Louisville.

The unit is to be located east of the present church building, between the parsonage and the church.

Besides having accommodation for approximately 100 children, the unit can be opened into an assembly room on each floor of the two floor unit.

The unit is to be made of cinder block material with a dark brown brick trim to match the sandstone church building.

Thursday at 6:30 p.m. there will be an all Church loyalty dinner as a part of the two week fund campaign under the direction Dr. Harold Bryant.

Community Church Incorporates, Names Officers

At its annual congregational meeting, Jan. 13, the Plattsmouth Community Church adopted Articles of Incorporation and elected trustees and other church officers for 1959.

Thus the Community Church became a fully organized and legally recognized religious body in the city, the Church constitution and by-laws having been adopted at a special meeting Oct. 27.

The Community Church is in its 5th year in Plattsmouth.

Herman Smith Now In Phoenix, Ariz.

Herman Smith, well known resident of the Nehawka community, is now enjoying the winter season on the west coast and in Arizona. He stopped for a short time in Phoenix and then onto California where he visited a daughter. He states that he was able to get many pictures of the Rose parade at Pasadena.

He is now at Phoenix with a daughter at that place. He was greatly shocked to learn of the death of Delbert Thorne of Nehawka.

JC Awards Banquet Is Thursday Nite

The Plattsmouth Jaycees' second annual awards banquet will be Thursday, Jan. 22, at 6:30 p.m. at the Lions Club Building on Main Street.

Jaycee President Wayne Schneider said this is one of the big banquets of the year.

This year, along with the presentation of the Distinguished Service Award and Outstanding Young Farmer Award will be the presentation of the Outstanding Boss of the Community and a Certificate of Appreciation.

This is the first year that the Local Jaycees have made a presentation of the Outstanding Boss Awards although other chapters throughout the state has been doing it for some time.

It is an award to one of the Jaycee Bosses, and is based on the Boss's own civic work and his record of helping his employees.

Main speaker for the banquet will be Nebraska State Jaycee President Byford Elwonger of Auburn.

The Distinguished Service Award will be presented by District Vice President Jim Hill of Falls City and The Outstanding Young Farmers Award by Myron Milder, state chairman of the OYF from Omaha.

The Jaycees will have plenty of tickets on hand for the banquet. Anyone wanting a ticket can contact chairman Jay Winters. The price is $1.50 per person.

Recommendations For Bingo Law Changes Presented

The state chairman of the Veterans of Foreign Wars bingo committee today was to present recommendations for changes in a proposed legislative bill on bingo to sponsors of the bill.

The recommended changes, agreed upon by the VFW, American Legion, Eagles and Moose lodges include:

An exception to the section limiting games to 20 which will allow more games to be played in single days at fairs and bazaars; providing for 10 per cent tax on amounts received from $500 to $1,000, 20 per cent from $1,000 to $1,500 and 30 per cent on $1,500 and up; including merchandise among prizes which can be offered.

Also: that fines be—$100 to $500 on first conviction of violation, one-year sentence or $500 or both for second conviction, and five-year sentence or $500 fine or both for third conviction.

Sponsors are Sam Klaver, 6th District; William Skarda, 7th; Terry Carpenter, 42nd, and John Munnely, 8th.

The veterans and fraternal organizations met several times in the past six weeks to draft recommendations for changes.

Richard Stones underwent surgery for a hernia Saturday morning at the University Hospital. He is getting along fine and is expected home today. He is the son of Mrs. Delores Stones.

Field for ASB Meet Is Tough

Plattsmouth High, seeking a comeback after three losses in a row, faces a tough role as defending champion in the Ak-Sar-Ben Conference basketball tournament beginning at Bellevue on Tuesday.

In the field are two of the three teams which lowered the Blue Devils' cage mark after a 4-0 start.

Westside hung a 56-38 defeat on the Devils Jan. 9 and Pawnee City won here 56-48 the next night.

Crete added more to the Plattsmouth lead on its road to recovery with a 79-53 decision Friday night.

So, Coach John Adkins of Plattsmouth is taking nothing for granted as the tourney gets closer. Bellevue is his team's first opponent and though it has not had an impressive record it must be considered a dangerous foe Tuesday at 8 p.m., having the home court advantage as it does.

Other first round games are Ashland vs. Tecumseh, Tuesday at 4:30, Ralston vs. Blair, Tuesday at 6:15.

Wednesday, Pawnee City meets the Ashland-Tecumseh winner at 4:30, Auburn plays the Ralston-Blair winner at 6:15 and Wahoo is paired against Westside at 8 p.m.

Semifinals are Thursday at 8:30 and 8 and the title game Friday at 8:15.

Last year, Plattsmouth defeated Westside in the championship game to avenge a defeat of earlier in that season.

If Plattsmouth wins Tuesday night, it will have a place in the semifinals and will play Thursday at 6:30. Its opponent will be the winner of Wednesday game between the Ashland-Tecumseh winner and Pawnee City.

In the lower bracket, Auburn will play the Blair-Ralston winner to see who meets the Wahoo-Westside winner in the other semifinal game.

Cass Basketball Meet Feb. 3-5-6

The January meeting of the Cass County School Men's Association was held at Murdock Jan. 14.

Death Of John Hennings At Taylor, Nebr.

John Hennings, 80, member of one of the pioneer families of the Louisville community, died at his home in Taylor, Nebr. Funeral services are being held at that place today.

Mr. Hennings was a son of Charles and Mary Hennings early day settlers of the Louisville community and where he spent his early years.

Bloodmobile Makes County Visit Wednesday

The Nebraska - Iowa Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit visits Cass County Wednesday, Jan. 21, at Elmwood Community Building from 12 noon to 6 p.m.

Blood donors are needed from every community in the county. Based on 5 per cent of population a "quota" of 865 units is required.

A statewide meeting of American Red Cross will be held in Omaha, Tuesday at the Fontenelle Hotel and every town is urged to be represented.

Chamber Member Drive Underway Here Tuesday

Chamber membership chairman Warren Rhylander of W. E. Cady Corp. announced today that the Chamber annual membership drive would swing into its kick-off Tuesday, at 8 a.m. following a 7:30 a.m. breakfast of the membership committee, which will be held at the Hotel Coffee Shop.

Rhylander urged that all members fill out their pledge sheets which is included in the annual report, so that the membership team may complete their assigned areas as soon as possible.

This year's Chamber membership drive will be set up with the north section of town matched against the south section, with the committee divided into 2 teams. The dividing line will be the center of main street.

The slogan for this year is "Make Way for '59—Build Plattsmouth."

A gauge will be placed on the Chamber window showing the daily standing of each team. At the end of the first week's competition, the team captains will be called in to pay the penalty for being behind. In case there is a tie, the Chamber President and manager must pay the penalty.

Rhylander said the drive this year is one of the most important drives in the history of the Chamber and that new members must be obtained so Chamber programs can be increased to meet the competition of neighboring areas and to take care of the increases expected from the enlargement of SAC headquarters and as well as the actual development of the river-industrial area.

Weeping Water Chief Of Police Resigns Post

Rasmus Lauritzen, chief of police of Weeping Water, has tendered his resignation to the city council of that place effective March 1.

The resignation is due to his age and health Mr. Lauritzen stated.

He has been an employe of the city of Weeping Water for some twenty years and has served under some nine different mayors. He served as chief of police from 1938 until 1943 when he was appointed as street, water and sewer commissioner. He served in that capacity until 1955 when he resigned to undergo surgery. He was reappointed chief of police in 1957 following the resignation of W. R. Rector.

REVVIN' UP — This lineup of classy cars of the day was awaiting the start of the Auto Parade in the 1916 Fall Festival here. Do you remember what makes these cars were? Notice that some are right-hand, some left-hand drive. It was suggested the well-decorated car in front must have been a Cadillac, for it looks so deer. — (Photo by Olson Photography, print by Bob Faris).

Miss Susan Officially Miss 1959

The time is up — the contest is over — it's time to wrap up the Journal 1959 Baby Derby and declare the winner to be:

Susan Marcella Beaman who weighed in at 8 pounds and 11 ounces at 4:28 p. m. Jan. 2 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha.

Being the first baby born to Cass County parents and registered with the Journal as such, entitles the lucky little lady to a host of prizes.

Susan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beaman, live at 519 North 9th St. in Plattsmouth. They moved to Plattsmouth from Omaha a year ago last September. Her father is employed as a mechanic at Rubin Auto Co.

Both the maternal and paternal grandparents are Iowans, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beaman reside at Mondakia and Mr. and Mrs. Stoker Earlywine, parents of Mrs. Beaman, live at Missouri Valley.

The arrival of Susan brings this family to 4. Brother Danny was two years old last September and has already demonstrated a big brother attitude toward her.

The lucky family will start picking up the gifts this week from the following Plattsmouth merchants:

Soenmichsen's, $5 gift certificate; the Beauty Box, a hair-cut, shampoo and set; a baby play table from Gambles; a pretty new dress from Wee Wardrobe; $5 worth of assorted baby foods from Ruback's; $5 worth of baby foods from Hinky Dinky; a $3 gift certificate good on a crib, high chair or baby buggy from Farley Furniture; a pair of shoes from B and H Shoe Store.

Also, a $5 gift certificate from Feldhausen Drug Store and another $5 gift certificate from Knorr's; Grove Jewelry will give a silver feeding spoon; a $5 gift certificate from C. A. Ruse Appliance; 20 quarts of Alamito milk from the route man for that firm here in Plattsmouth and a six months subscription to THE JOURNAL in order that the young lady may learn about goings on in Plattsmouth and Cass County.

Lucky Susan Marcella, lucky parents of Miss Plattsmouth of 1959, for they will pick up gifts valued over $70 and that's not hay.

Annual Meet Of Extension Service Feb. 2

Hilton Rogers, chairman of the Cass County Extension Service, announced this week that Feb. 2 is the date for the annual meeting of the Extension Service.

A highlight of the program will be a report of pictures and words by Jan de Zwart from the Netherlands.

Jan has spent a few months in America as an International Farm Youth Exchange student. He has stayed in a number of Nebraska homes including those of Sterling Ingwerson and Ralph Wehrlein in Cass County.

Three Extension Board members will be elected, one from each of the County Commissioner districts.

All board members have tickets for the banquet.

The Cass Soil and Water Conservation District will present the Conservation Award for 1958 at the meeting. Recipients of the outstanding Cass County Conservation Award are Walter and Wayne Weyers of Eagle.

A color aerial photo will be presented to the Weyerses.

Presentation will be by Henry Vinduska, treasurer of the Cass Soil and Water Conservation District.

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents.
