"Look! Electric Rates Are 37% Lower Than in Pre-War Days"

Most costs of living have gone up . . . but the cost of ELECTRICITY has gone down in Nebraska. In 1942, the average residential customer paid more than 4 cents a kilowatt hour; in 1958, only 2½ cents! This decrease of 37% has made ELECTRICITY the biggest bargain in your household budget!

Because of increased capacity and demand plus efficient and economical operation, electric users in Nebraska enjoy rates among the FIVE LOWEST IN THE NATION!
