Life Story Of Charles L. Byers Pioneer Resident

Charles L. Byers, 84, pioneer resident of Cass County and a resident of the Walthill, Neb., community since 1913, passed away at the home of his son, Julian C. Byers of David City, Nebr., on January 8, 1959. Following a relatively short period of disability.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, January 11th in the Walthill Methodist church, the Rev. Melvin Commack officiating. During the services organ interludes "An Evening Prayer" and "Abide With Me" were played by the church organist, Mrs. Ralph Copenhaver. Burial was at Evergreen cemetery, Walthill, with Charles E. Boughn, William M. Hopper, Pender and George E. Sappenfield, Henry Beard, Harold Cornwell, and Earl Burkhardt of Walthill, casket bearers.

Mr. Byers is survived by his four sons, Charles A., Sious City; James J., Berkeley, Calif.; Donald H., Omaha and Julian C., David City, Nebr.; two daughters, Mrs. Faye Vane, Berkeley, Calif.; Mrs. Bennie J. Franson of Rosalie and other relatives and friends. He was a cousin of Judge J. H. Graves of this city.

Charles Luther Byers, son of Joseph and Mary E. Graves Byers, was born on July 9, 1874. He was the oldest of four children of the Byers family. The others in order were sons, Lee, Walter, and a daughter, Oriena Byers Wyatt, they all preceded Charles in death. Charles being the last of the family. He was born in Bartlett, Fremont county, Ia., and while yet a small child he was brought by the parents to Cass county, Nebraska. He was married to Minnie L. Baker on February 8, 1897. This marriage union lasted over 60 years and was broken by the death of Mrs. Byers in June 1957.

They lived in Rock Bluffs and Nebraska City before moving to Walthill in 1913. He worked on the construction of the Plocotte hospital at Walthill and later as a mechanic in a garage until 1919 when he started to work for the city in the light and water department, later serving as city electrician until 1930 and with the Central States Electric Co. He retired permanently from work when reaching the age of 70.

Mr. Byers was an ardent baseball fan and player from his childhood and even continued playing with Walthill until after 70 years old.

Funeral Of Eryl L. McNurlin Held At Greenwood
