This brings the total of children admitted since Jan. 5 to 13. Since the last school news,

The grade school children have been enjoying a study of instruments. Several people have done solos for them recently.

Like old-time Western cattlemen, Pakistan's Afridi tribesmen feel undressed without a rifle. In Kohat Pass's rude arsenal they make their own, imitating the best Western models. Bearded blacksmiths heat gun barrels in primitive forges and woodworkers whittle gunstocks held between their toes.
