

PHS Seeking Weekend Wins

Plattsmouth seeks a recovery from a six-game losing streak against Wahoo in the Ak-Sar-Ben basketball conference Friday night.

The Blue Devils also play Saturday at Nebraska City in the Twin Rivers Conference.

Plattsmouth Coach John Adkins said he is "cautiously optimistic" about his team's chances this weekend.

The Devils scrimmaged Tuesday at Omaha South and Wednesday here against Louisville.

Adkins feels his team's defense has improved quite well although the scoring against South particularly wasn't too good. Ball handling was also alright and the team did get good shots, he said.

Plattsmouth is 4-6 for the season. Wahoo, hasn't impressed. Nebraska City is 4-6 for the season and 1-2 in the Twin Rivers. Nebraska City beat Wahoo, 57-44, last week.

The Devils approach the weekend with the whole squad fit to play and working hard at trying to get back onto the win side.

Teams that comprise Class C are: Pawnee City (10-4); Chadron Prep (11-4); Louisville, (12-0); Palmyra (8-2); Howells (10-1); Minature (7-3); Lawrence (10-0); Leigh (12-0); Hastings St. Cecilia (13-3); Arnold (12-1).

1 of 5 in State Is 'Sportsman'

Almost one out of every five residents of Nebraska fishes or hunts, or does both, according to the 1958 sales of permits, reports M. O. Steen, Game Commission director.

Steen said a total of 258,815 resident permits — fishing, hunting, combination fishing and hunting — were sold last year. He said the number of sportsmen is even greater that one out of every five inasmuch as youngsters under 16, who are not required to buy permits to fish or hunt, are not included in this breakdown.

Following are the number of permits sold: fishing, 111,023; hunting, 77,291; fishing and hunting, 70,501. In addition, 3,565 nonresident hunting permits, 3,339 nonresident fishing permits, 5,595 10-day nonresident fishing permits, and 2,778 trapping permits were issued in 1958. Grand total of all permits sold is 274,093.

Number 1 county in number of permits sold was Douglas with 46,746. Lancaster County was second with 23,821. Cass County had 3,824. Otoe, 3,219; Sarpy, 2,636, and Saunders, 3,202.

Louisville, 3rd in Class C, Defends Southeast 8 Title

Louisville High, sporting a 12-0 record, has been ranked third best Class C basketball team in the state by the Omaha papers.

Most of its wins have been impressive. A prized victory was over Syracuse, now rated 7th in Class B.

Louisville next week will defend its Southeast Eight Conference Tournament championship when it is host to the 1959 meet.

Syracuse and Papillon open the meet Wednesday at 2 p.m. Johnson and Peru Prep play at 3:30. Humboldt and Waverly at 7 and Louisville and Weeping Water at 8:15.

Next Thursday's semifinals are at 7 and 8:15. The title game is Friday, Feb. 13, at 8:15 after the semifinals losers have met for third place at 7 p.m.

Small Auto Accident Occurred Tuesday

Tuesday morning a slight auto accident occurred on North 6th street when the sport coupe of Frederick C. Schmidt ran into a Chevy pickup of Tom Grosshans parked on the west side of 6th street.

The accident was caused when the carburetor on the Schmidt car became loose and caused the car to go out of control and swung across the street and strike the pickup.

No one was injured and no damage to the vehicles was reported by the police.

Sarpy Highway 370 Still Under Much Dispute

The residents of Sarpy county are still discussing the location of highway No. 370 running east and west through the county. The state commission voted Monday at Lincoln 5 to 1 as favoring the south route for the highway.

Commissioner Chris Metzger is reported in the Papillon Times as having pointed out that the Chandler road as serving a large amount of Papillon traffic. He added that Douglas and Sarpy counties have agreed to improve Harrison street, the county road line.

Papillon booster state that the Chandler road is fine as far as it goes but stops at 36th street which is surfaced south to the present north route of 370.

Harrison street, one mile north of Chandler, has been discussed for several years as a joint project by the two counties but no firm agreement has been reached.

The club has invited anyone interested in joining to come to the next meeting Feb. 28 at the home of John Weichel at 2 p. m.

Union Items

The latest change in places of business took place Feb. 1. Howard Snodgrass has returned to Union and will be in his former place of business which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meredith. The Merediths have set up their "new store" in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Smiley.

Mrs. Arnold Fahrlander entered St. Mary's Hospital Jan. 25.

A project that is being sponsored by the Community Club for the next two weeks is called "Save the Children Federation Bundle Day." This drive was set to begin Feb. 6 and continue for two weeks to Feb. 20.

The Community is asked to donate children's outgrown clothing and shoes to be used for "mountain people of the South." This clothing is distributed from a Federated Store or given to individuals as they need it.

It is hoped that everyone will respond to this project. For more information, call Miss Fife at school or Mrs. Francis Lechner.

The next Community Meeting will be Feb. 9. Pictures will be shown and an interesting meeting is being planned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lovsky of Kansas City, Mo., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lechner over last weekend. While here, they visited Mrs. Nellie Lovsky at Grandview Home.

Mrs. Ray Cross spent last weekend at Murray visiting friends.

FED UP, SO QUILTS

Lexington, Ky. — Roger Langford, Fayette county schoolbus driver, reached the end of his rope before he reached the end of his route recently. He said the noisy playfulness of his passengers got to be too much. He stopped his vehicle on the spot and resigned.

"I was so upset I felt I should not go any further, so I just stopped the bus," he said.

A relief driver delivered the children to school.
