Rotary Hears Talk On South America
 Dr. Wesley Perry, pastor of First Methodist Church, Omaha, told the Rotary Club of his impressions of South America at the Tuesday club meeting. Dr. Perry visited South America under auspices of the Methodist Church along with 3 other ministers. Program chairman was Rev. A. L. Embree. High school Rotarians the past month told of their post-school plans, Larry Marler to attend college in physical education and coach basketball, and Charles Stoehr to attend the University of Nebraska two years and then go to veterinary school in Colorado. Both are juniors. Because Rotary is 54 years old this month, club president L. A. Caldwell called on remaining Plattsmouth club charter members for comment. Searl Davis, first president here and one of the three members left of the original 16, reviewed the club's formation. Dr. Paul Heineman was secretary the club's first year. The other charter member left here, Roy Knorr, is in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Kalina Leave For Fort Knox, Ky.
