

NABA Annual Meeting at Fremont

Approximately 280 farmers from all parts of Nebraska were present for the annual meeting of the Nebraska Artificial Breeders Association at Fremont.

Forenoon activities were divided with a business meeting for directors while members attended the open house held at the stud farm. About 200 farmers inspected the stud sties and observed demonstrations of collection of semen and on hoof trimming.

Highlights of the afternoon meeting were presentation of recognition awards, a 4-H demonstration and an address by Dr. Oscar E. Olson of South Dakota State College.

In the election of directors to the executive board, Richard Poch, Milligan, and Mark Eisenmenger, Humphrey, were re-elected for three year terms. Other members of the board are Joe Beckenhauer, Wayne; Don Wiles, Weeping Water; Harold Engelhart, Bancroft.

In reorganization of the board, Beckenhauer was re-elected as president for a 4th consecutive year. Others re-elected were Wiles as vice president, Eisenmenger as secretary and Engelhart as treasurer.

Edward G. Ofe Here For Funeral

Edward G. Ofe of Tacoma, Wash., former resident here in his younger days, was here this week, called by the death of his sister, Mrs. Alice Haffke. While here Ed was able to see many of the old friends and associates and renew old times. He with his father and brother Bill established the Ofe Oil service station in this city.

He states that Mrs. Ofe is enjoying good health and they are enjoying their home on the west coast where they have lived for the past few years.

Ed says his nephews, the McBride boys, are located in the Tacoma area and are doing well. Don and Austin are residents there and have excellent positions. George McBride is still in the naval service and will reach his retirement in a short time as gunnery sergeant, first.

A number of others were in attendance but not in the picture.

Easement Authorized For Road to State's Game Refuge Area

The City Council Monday night authorized an easement by the city, subject to approval by the Board of Public Works, to the State Game Commission for construction of a road over the present "water plant road" paralleling the railroad tracks north to the State Waterfowl Management area.

The commission is planning development of the old Rifle Range area as a wildlife refuge.

The Nebraska Game, Forestation and Parks Commission is asking bids on grading and rock surfacing of access and service roads and installation of parking areas for the area (see legal notice in this issue).

Busy Homemakers

The Busy Homemakers 4-H Club met Feb. 2 at the home of Mary Hendrix.

Karen Tilson was the winner of the 4-H Public Speaking Contest held at Weeping Water.

The following demonstrations were given: Making darts in a blouse by Sharon Kiser; Stay stitch material by Pat Meisinger; Laying the pattern by Mary Hendrix, and doing dishes by Nancy Tilson.

The beginning girls made sandwiches.

All of the girls judged pot holders and aprons.

The next meeting will be on March 1 at the home of Sharon Kiser.

Complaints Heard About 'Snow Birds'

Several complaints have been heard here about "snow birds" this winter. Those are cars left parked on streets and not moved for a long time. These interfere with snow plowing and hence with traffic movement.

City Council members reported the complaints Monday night at their regular meeting.

The city attorney said an ordinance provides that a disabled car must be removed within 24 hours.

Great White Way

Dana Wynter's starring role in Jerry Wald's "In Love and War," 20th Century-Fox Cinema Scope color production playing at the Cass Theater Sunday through Wednesday, March 1-4, may well be her last film role for the time being.

With her eyes on Broadway, Dana has been reading scripts of original plays.

Joe Rosenthal, who won the Pulitzer Prize for his photograph of the Marines raising the flag on Mt. Suribachi during the second world war, made all of the special still pictures on the set of Jerry Wald's "In Love and War."

The film, which stars Robert Wagner, Dana Wynter, Jeffrey Hunter, Hope Lange, Bradford Dillman, Sheree North and France Nuyen, is set during the Pacific War and shows its effects on three Marines and the women they leave behind.—Adv.
