

Budick-Kratville Wedding Held At Omaha Saturday

Of interest here was the wedding of Miss Mary Catherine Burdick and William Wood Kratville at the First Central Congregational Church in Omaha Saturday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burdick of Malvern, Ia., and niece of Carl Schneider of this city. Mr. Kratville's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kratville.

The Reverend Howard Ohman officiated at the 3 p.m. ceremony.

A reception was held at the Blackston Hotel before the couple departed on a wedding trip in the South.

They will make their home in Omaha upon their return.

The Burdick family are former Plattsmouth residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider were at Omaha for the wedding.

Marilyn Lutz Honored At Bridal Showers

Marilyn Lutz has been honored recently with two miscellaneous bridal showers. Miss Lutz will be married to Mr. Richard Wohlfarth, March 21.

Mrs. Ann Kaffenberger entertained at her country home March 1 in honor of Miss Lutz. The invited guests were the officers and teachers of the St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Sunday School.

Miss Lutz was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Lunch was served from the tea table with Mrs. Orval Kahler presiding at the punch bowl.

March 8 in St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church parlors Miss Lutz was again honored.

Patty and Sandy Toman presented two accordion numbers. Lois Gagen sang "A Fellow Needs a Girl" and "You Don't Know How Lucky You Are." She was accompanied by Mrs. Ferd Nolte. Mrs. Richard Berner presented two readings, "How to Preserve a Husband," and "How to Understand a Man."

Miss Lutz was assisted by Mrs. Fred Kaffenberger, Jr., and Miss Mary Wohlfarth in opening her gifts.

Refreshments were served from a candle lighted tea table with Mrs. Otto Lutz, and Mrs. Otto Wohlfarth, mothers of the nuptial couple presiding.

Hostesses for the occasion were the aunts and cousins of the bride-to-be.

Four-H club alumni in Nebraska now number 200,000 reports the state 4-H office at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture. This figure is based on enrollment since 1916; there were some 4-H clubs that existed before that date, according to W. M. Antes, state leader of 4-H and Young Men and Women at the University.

The moon's gravity is less than that of the earth, thus a visitor to the moon would weigh only one-sixth as much as he does normally. An athlete who on earth high jumps over a six-foot bar elevates his body's gravity an average of about three feet. On the moon, he could leap 21 feet with similar effort.

Sue Roland Is Honor Student

Sue Roland, 16, sophomore honor student at Albuquerque, New Mexico, is the daughter of the late Captain Bob Roland former Plattsmouth resident, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redd.

Miss Roland when a ninth grader received special recognition as the first student at Jefferson Junior High School where she attended, to letter for three years in all four fields of school endeavors. She won 12 school letters for outstanding accomplishments in service citizenship, scholarship and athletics.

Miss Roland, a member of the Mariner Scout Troop, is taking a cruise later this month, flying to New Orleans by the Navy Department, and will take a tour of New Orleans, the French Quarters and the Naval Unit and facilities there. A cruise up and down the Mississippi on a Navy destroyer is also included in the trip, and a flight return to Albuquerque.

Miss Roland is taking senior lifesaving at the YMCA in hopes of getting a summer job as a life-guard. She plans going to Europe the summer of her junior year as an exchange student to Germany.

It is interesting to note Miss Roland is following in the footsteps of her father who was an honor student at Plattsmouth High School, graduating in the class of 1932. He was the youngest Scout to have as many years of scouting in this area.

Miss Roland's father enlisted on Pearl Harbor Day, and served in the Artillery in the Army, planning to make this his career, but was killed in action April 11, 1945.

CULTURAL EXCHANGE OK

Washington—The United States and Russia have carried out two thirds of their big cultural exchange agreement without a major hitch.

This historic agreement, signed about a year ago, is working so well that both sides are seriously considering extending it when it expires next January.
