Miss Ashlock, Weeping Water Is Bride of Wm. H. Mason

Miss Mary Lou Ashlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ashlock of Weeping Water and William H. Mason, son of Mrs. Sophie Mason of this city, were united in marriage in the presence of 200 guests at the Methodist Church at Weeping Water on Feb. 28.

The Rev. C. F. Weideman officiated at the candlelight double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock. Marriage vows were solemnized in front of the church altar which was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown; the bodice of imported Chantilly lace featured a neckline encircled with iridescent sequins and long pointed sleeves. The skirt of white taffeta had a long flowing train. Her elbow length veil fell from a crown of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried an arrangement of red roses.

The maid of honor, Henrietta Wade, aunt of the bride, was gowning in a mint green chiffon waltz length frock. The bridesmaids were Lois Hauschild of Manly and Phyllis Barnard of this city. They were attired in shrimp and blue shaded chiffon alike gowns.

Best man was Jack Barnard and groomsmen were Thomas Beins of Weeping Water and Grover Cundall Jr. of this city.

Pamela Fine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fine of Bellevue, and Cheryl White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry White of Lincoln, lighted the tapers. Sherry Kenyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kenyon of this city was flower girl and Bobby Smutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smutz of this city, was ringbearer.

Richard Ashlock, brother of the bride, and Larry Cundall, cousin of the bridegroom ushered.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. George Fine, sister of the bridegroom, was seated at the guest book, while Mrs. Grover Cundall Sr. of this city and Mrs. Jerry White, also sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Mrs. Grover Cundall Jr. cut the wedding cake.

Mrs. William H. Mason

Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Kenneth Hauschild, Mrs. Thomas Beins and Mrs. Lyle Thomassen.

Ruth Circle of the church had charge of the arrangements for the reception.

The bride chose a light gray suit with contrasting accessories for her going away attire. They will make their home at Oakmont Farms, Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Marie Wheeler Suffers Stroke At Country Home

Mrs. Marie Wheeler is critically ill at St. Mary's Hospital, Nebraska City. Relatives Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson found her Friday at her home on the floor of the home apparently suffering from a stroke.

Mrs. Wheeler's son, Robert Wheeler of San Antonio, Texas is on his way home to be at his mother's bedside.

She had been in poor health the past three months, and had spent a great deal of this time at the Patterson home. Tuesday she felt well enough to return to her home.
