Greenwood won second place and Murdock third.

Old Resident Pays
Visit To City

Monday Ed. Gustin of Lincoln was a visitor in Plattsmouth, enjoying a few hours stay in the community where he came as a youth in 1882 from his native Wisconsin. Mr. Gustin had business at the court house and took the time to look up a few acquaintances.

When the Gustin family first came here, they located on the Hull farm west of this city, where they spent a few years and later located in the Murdock community where the family was active in community affairs. One of the members of the family, John F. Gustin, was a member of the legislature from Cass county at one time.

Mr. Gustin states that the farm home that they located on was known as the "seven mile house" and he for several years was a student at the Pleasant Ridge school and had as schoolmates the members of the John H. Becker family, William, Ed. George, Phil, Dora, Neil and Carrie, as well as L. A. Meisinger. Mr. Gustin had a nice visit with Mr. Meisinger and in renewing old times.

Mr. Gustin is living at 1101 So 23 street in Lincoln.

Roger Baumgart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Baumgart of Omaha, will undergo surgery Friday, and would like to hear from his Plattsmouth friends.

Elmer Elliott Is Progressing Nicely

Elmer Elliott who has been suffering from the effects of a heart attack several months ago, is gradually gaining his strength at the home in this city. He returned sometime ago from St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City and now is battling his way back to health. He is still confined to the home but is hopeful of soon being able to enjoy a visit among the friends in the downtown area.

Police Court Has Run of Business
For the Mid-Week

Check of the docket at the city court this morning disclosed Judge James Howard Graves had a busy time.

Two girls, 13 and 15, were before the court charged with disturbing the peace. Both girls entered pleas of guilty to the charge and each drew a fine of $10 and costs, amounting to $14 each that was settled and they were released.

Mrs. Wauneta Stillinger was charged with running a stop sign, operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license and no registration on the car. Cash bond of $25 was posted for appearance March 25.

William Irvin was charged with improper parking and given a fine of $1 and costs, total $5.

Harry Buckhold was charged with improper parking and placed a cash bond of $5 for future appearance.

Mrs. Leonard Born returned home Wednesday from the Methodist Hospital in Omaha where she underwent observation and submitted to surgery. She is getting along fine.

The re-opening of Mom's Cafe on Main Street today gladdened the hearts of coffee lovers at the Journal and other workers in this part of town. Coffee breaks just weren't the same. The cafe closed a week for re-decoration. "Mom" promised herself a jaunt into Omaha but plans didn't materialize.

Mrs. William H. Schmidtman left by plane for Columbus, Ohio, this week to be with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn and to welcome her new granddaughter.
