

Sallie Ballance of Eagle Weds Mr. Stanley Emshoff

AVOCA (Special) — At the Methodist Church in Eagle on March 6 was the wedding of Miss Sallie Ballance and Stanley Emshoff. The marriage rites were read by Rev. Bowne at 6:30.

Baskets of pink and white snapdragons and gladioli decorated the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Al Ballance of Eagle and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Emshoff of Avoca.

The bride appeared in a gown of white satin and rosepoint lace. The bodice of lace smoothly sculptured over satin was designed with Sabrina neckline richly encrusted with pearls and sequins. Pearl encrusted lace motifs were appliqued on the full skirt of satin which was fashioned with wide panels of lace and fell to floor length. Her fingertip veil was held by a half hat of lace trimmed with pearls. She carried white gardenias.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Billie Reuter, Lincoln, was marten of honor. Karen Emshoff, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Best man was James Meyer and Larry Ruge of Syracuse was groomsmen.

Kaye and Maye Berner of Lincoln lighted the tapers. Ushers were Darrell Mather of Weeping Water and Harold Elmke.

Denise Mather and Johnna Emshoff, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls and ring bearer was David Reuter, nephew of the bride.

Miss Faye Erskine of Eagle played the wedding music and soloist was Mrs. Lois Lukes of Lincoln.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The ladies of the church were in charge of the serving.

The bride graduated from the Eagle Schools in 1956 and is employed in Lincoln.

The bridegroom graduated from the Avoca Schools in 1956 and is farming.

After a wedding trip to Florida they will live on a farm near Avoca.
