School News From Nehawka

NEHAWKA (Special) — The senior sneak day was observed over the weekend with a trip to Colorado.

Seniors left Lincoln by train Friday evening at 10:45 and arrived in Denver Saturday morning. They went by chartered bus to a cafe for breakfast. Then the bus took them to Red Rock where they saw the amphitheater, Clear Creek canyon.

The bus had a tire blow out and during the time it was repaired the students of Nehawka and Brock school seniors, who rode the same bus, took pictures and collected rocks. The next stop was at Central City, a ghost town.

After lunch at Idaho Springs they drove to the mountains for the afternoon through Squaw Pass, saw Mt. Evans, the Great Divide and Echo Lake. At Look-out Mt. they visited the Buffalo museum. Upon their return to Denver they had dinner at a cafe, left at 7 by train on Saturday evening and arrived in Lincoln early Sunday morning.

Due to a freight train wreck in western Nebraska they were delayed for two hours.

At the recent fine arts contest held at Auburn, Nehawka received the following ratings: vocal solos — Bonita Lacy and Nancy Ehlers 2; Cheryl Weik and Sue Johnson 1; Instrumental solos — Ronnie Chriswiser, Edward Behrens and Sandra Stapert all received a 3; the sextette 2; clarinet quartette 3; band 4 and Glee club 2.

Pre school registration for the kindergarten pupils was held Wednesday afternoon in Mrs. Ellis Lacy's room. There are 20 new pupils and their mothers were also present. The registration was followed by a social hour. The public is invited to the kindergarten graduation at the school on Monday, May 18, at 2 p.m.

The Nehawka Future Homemakers of America took part in the Future Homemakers public relations program held Saturday, May 2 in Lincoln as part of the Lincoln Centennial. The Nehawka girls illustrated the state project, Community Service, in two table scenes. Those who took part were Ann Briley, Dorcene Leslie, Cheryl Weik, Bonita Lacy, and Nancy Ehlers was narrator. Mary Henderson, Gloria Miller, Thelma Kettelhut were stage helpers. Accompanying the girls were Mrs. G. W. Weik, Mrs. Ellis Lacy and their instructor, Mrs. Helen Friedli.

The orchestra will also play May 23 at the school for the Blind in Nebraska City.

Best wishes for success were received from Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower, Benny Goodman, LeRoy Anderson of the Boston Symphony, Helen Hayes, and Omaha Mayor John Rosenblatt.

Saturday at the Joslyn, soloists will be Vincent Di Sore who will present Beethoven's Piano Concerto, 1st Movement; and Eujane Wymore, a cello solo, Sonata, for Cello by Vivaldi.

Sentence Follows 3-Vehicle Accident
Tuesday during the noon hour the intersection of First Avenue and Sixth Street was scene of a triangular wreck involving two cars and a small truck. Charles Ulrich, 50, of Hamilton, Mo., was making the turn into First Avenue when his truck and a car driven by Charles Estelle, 31, of this city collided.

In the crash, Estelle suffered a cut on the chin from being thrown into the windshield and the car suffered damage estimated at $300.

The Estelle car, rebounding from the crash with the truck, and the passing car of Larry Jenkins collided, inflicting damage of some $40 to the Jenkins car, it was estimated.

In County Court Wednesday, Estelle was sentenced for second offense drunken driving to 30 days in the County Jail, fined $300 and had his operator's license suspended one year.
