May Fellowship Tea For Church Women At Mynard

The May Fellowship Tea of the United Council of Church Women was held May 1. The Mynard EUB Church ladies were hostesses.

After an organ prelude by Mrs. Roy Cole, Mrs. Melvin Shafer, who had charge of the meeting opened with a call to worship. The hymn "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life," was sung followed by prayer by Mrs. Shafer.

The theme for 1959 "How much is Enough?" This was presented by Mrs. J. B. Cook, Mrs. Willis Cole and Mrs. Ted Wiles.

A prayer solo "Open my Eyes that I May See" was sung by Mrs. Wayne Hendrix. Mrs. Neil Small read the scripture.

A new method of presenting the theme this year was to divide the audience into discussion groups. Five groups were formed with Mrs. Delap, Mrs. Sack of Murray, Mrs. E. B. Thomason, Mrs. Dale Wohlfarth of Murray, Mrs. Emma Egenberger as discussion leaders for each panel and after discussion the groups reassembled in the auditorium and the conclusions of these discussion panels were given by Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Chas. Kerns Mrs. Phil Rhin, Mrs. Bob Gall and Mrs. Vern Waterman.

Church women are asked to take part in a national survey designed to discover the economic opinions, habits and the responsibilities which they undertake in this area.

Refreshments were served by the Mynard WSCS ladies in the dining room. The table with pink table cloth and beautiful pink floral arrangement and candles was very lovely.

Mrs. Myron Wiles and Mrs. Wayne Hendrix poured coffee and tea.

Gamma Chapter Attends State Convention

Nine members of the Gamma Chapter of the Nebraska Alpha Delta Kappa attended the State Convention at the Castle Hotel in Omaha.

They were privileged to hear Trunella Stewart of Bloomington, Ill., 15th District National vice president speak. Her topic was "Vision Through Participation."

They also attended a luncheon and gave their original skit for the members of the various chapters.

Members from Omaha, Lincoln, Plattsmouth, Beatrice and Grand Island attended the conference.

Later each member worked in discussion groups and then attended the final business meeting.

Gamma Chapter adjourned to their own chapter installation banquet. Mrs. John Albert had made the program and place cards. Each member spoke briefly on the aims and purposes of Alpha Delta Kappa and how membership in the sorority had helped them.

Mrs. Dale Gleason presented a tentative program for the year.

Mrs. Lloyd Fitch, past president of Gamma chapter, installed the following 1959-60 officers: president, Mrs. Dale Gleason; vice president, Mrs. L. B. Todd; recording secretary, Margaret Kroese; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Alberts; chaplain, Mrs. Richard Beverage; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. McLean; historian, Mrs. Catherine Sandlin, and Sgt. at Arms, Mrs. Raymond Haith.

'Hawaiian Cruise' Is Prom Theme

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Junior and Senior Banquet and prom was held Friday evening May 1st at the High School. The Theme was "Hawaiian Cruise."

The students were seated at card tables under a canopy of red, white and blue streamers. The center piece was a palm tree and nut cups of gold were made in the shape of clam shells. The backdrop was a scene of Hawaii with palm trees and during the dinner Hawaiian music was played.

The welcome was given by Douglas Alfrey, Junior and the response by Errol Melsing, Senior. After dinner the waitresses gave a Hawaiian hula and Mary Mayfield read a dedication to the seniors. The prom was held after the banquet with music provided by Carl Cherry.

The waiters were Steve Stohlmann, David Stohlmann, Jack Welch, Gene Tlustos and Bill Sutton, who were dressed in blue ivy leagues and white shirts with leis around their necks. The flower girl was Deanna Melsing, and the waitresses were Judy Hell, Susan Worthan, Janelle Heard Janet Heard, Carolyn Stohlmann. They were dressed in white blouses, skirts of printed Hawaiian material, red leis and a red carnation in the hair.

Safety Patrol Officer Speaks To PTA Group

"It takes 1,492 nuts to hold a car together but only one nut behind the wheel to scatter it all over the highway" said Capt. O. H. Witt of the Nebraska State Safety Patrol as he spoke on the topic "Alert Today, Alive Tomorrow" at the Columbia PTA.

He listed the fatal five as excessive speed, following too close, improper passing, failure to yield right of way, and speed too fast for the conditions. A close sixth would be driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Captain Witt used colored slides to illustrate his talk. He stressed the problem of traffic accidents could be corrected only by the efforts of each individual. He quoted Thomas Edison, "What man has the intellect to create, he should have the character to control."

Cub Scout Den 8 under the direction of Mrs. Peggy Brookhouser presented a number "Wreck in Rhythm" to open the meeting.

Reports of the State Convention at Norfolk were given Mrs. Stanley Cowan, Mrs. Clifford Dasher and Mrs. Clark Finney attended as delegates from Columbian PTA.

The story hour to be sponsored by the P.T.A. Council at the Plattsmouth Library during the summer was discussed.

Mr. Neeley reported he had purchased a book case for the encyclopedias and folding chairs. A round of applause was given Mrs. Lloyd Fitch for her work as Council president this year.

Mrs. Fitch installed the following officers: president, Mrs. Kenneth Tiekotter; vice president, Mrs. Stanley Cowan; secretary, Mrs. Keith Delap; treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Dasher; and council delegate, Mrs. Wayne Green.
