

Attend Reunion of 1928-29 Classes

In the large number of the alumni to attend the reunion of the classes of 1928 - 29 Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Denny of Chicago and Mrs. Winifred Malley of Galesburg, Ill.

These ladies were formerly Isabel and Winifred Shea, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Shea, Sr., born here and educated in the local schools. Since their marriage they have resided in Illinois.

They also visited their sister-in-law, Mrs. Nellie Shea while here.

Missionaries Here to Conduct Bible School

Two summer missionaries of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention are assisting in the Vacation Bible School held by the Plattsmouth Baptist Mission. They are Miss Eva League from North Carolina and Miss Cleeta Beth Jordan from Texas.

These Missionaries are a part of some 500 summer missionaries who spent summer vacation in pioneer Mission areas conducting Bible School and taking part in other activities which may be needed.

The pair have been in Wahoo for the past week and plan to return here following this week to conduct a Bible School. From Wahoo they will go to Lincoln for a time and proceed to Grand Island.

Bible School here now in its second week has 35 children and six workers enrolled.

Commencement services will be held Friday evening in the Lions Community Building at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Methodist Youth Fellowship Hold Installation

New officers of the Methodist Youth Fellowship were installed at the regular worship service at the First Methodist church Sunday morning, by the pastor, the Rev. A. L. Embree.

Miss Suzanne Murdock was installed as president; Shirley Gunsolley as vice president; Tim Fischer as secretary; and Marlene Johnson as treasurer.

Also installed were the chairman of the various program areas: Mary Wohlfarth, Christian Faith, Ruth Mann, Christian Citizenship; Sam Pierce, Christian Fellowship; Pat Smock, Christian Witness; and Teddy Mann, Christian Outreach. Darlene Johnson was installed as pianist.

Meetings during the summer will be held on Wednesday nights. All youth are welcome.

Historical Committees Meet

Planning and Finance Committees of the Cass County Historical Society met at the home of Miss Grace Livingston June 8.

Plans were made for the county fund raising canvass to begin in mid-June, looking toward realization of the goal for beginning erection of the Cass County Historical Museum.

The committee has the promise of completion of the building within 9 days after contract has been let. It is hoped the building can be ready for inspection by King Korn Carnival Days.

The response and interest shown for the museum are mounting and the committees are well pleased with the progress, the society says. Letters have been received from various groups over the nation expressing interest in preservation and marking of historical sites.

The next general meeting of the society will be a covered dish luncheon at Steinhart Park, Nebraska City at noon June 24. The public is invited.

Henry A. Hughson Given Certificate In Postal Test

Supervisors of the Plattsmouth, post office recently participated in a unique training program which is believed to be one of the first of its kind undertaken in the United States, according to Leslie W. Niel, postmaster.

Supervisors from the local office who have completed the course and were issued certificates by P. E. (Scottie) Cowan, Wichita regional personnel manager, was Henry A. Hughson.

A total of 60 postal supervisors in Nebraska offices, voluntarily participated in the supervisor development program. Of this group 56 completed the course. This total is exclusive of Lincoln and Omaha, since these offices conduct their own separate courses.

The state was divided into districts with training classes at Lincoln, Columbus, Kearney and Alliance.
