10 P. M. Curfew To Be Enforced In Bellevue

Bellevue is to enforce their 10 p.m. curfew ordinance young folks under 18 years of age, Police Chief Warren Robinson of that city has announced. This action has been requested by Juvenile Officer Joe Morgan because of "increasing trouble with teenagers."

The ordinance forbids those under 18 years of age to be on the streets or in public places unless accompanied by parent or authorized adult, going or coming from a legitimate meeting or on an errand for parents or in the course of employment.
