Mrs. Harlan Lester Horswill

Miss Nannette Evelyn Cognac Weds Harlan Lester Horswill

Saint Luke's Episcopal Church was the setting for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Nannette Evelyn Cognac and Harlan Lester Horswill. Father Max Kors officiated at the four o'clock ceremony June 28.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Paul Winborne. The princess bridal gown of white parchment satin was enchantingly simple with a bell-shaped chapel length train, traditional long sleeves and stand-away collar edged in tiny pearls. The bride wore a Danish fairy crown beaded with pearls and crystals and a fingertip illusion veil and carried a prayer book with floral sprays of stephanotis. This gown was created by the bride.

Miss Irene Lambert was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Darlene Jacobs, Dorothy Patterson and Marjorie Grosshans; all attired in pale forget-me-not blue organdy ballerina length gowns with white accessories carrying bouquets of garden flowers in pastel coloring.

Best man was Donald Syverson and groomsmen Harvey Simi, Wilbur Lagase and Manuel Perez, Derold Keys and Donald Williams ushered.

Ann Begley, dressed identically to the bridesmaids, was flower girl; Michael O'Donnell was ringbearer for the double ring service.

Mrs. Earl Roades, the bridegroom's mother, wore embroidered tulle over forget-me-not blue with blue accessories, complemented by a corsage of red roses. Mother of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Cognac, wore hyacinth chantilly lace with lilac accessories and a corsage of pale pink roses.

The reception was held at the Lions Club following the ceremony. Guests were greeted by Miss Marilyn Hendricks in charge of the guest book. Hostesses were the Misses Karlene Senf and Mary Iverson.

The couple will reside at 418 North Fourth Street and will be at home to their friends after July 15.

Rev. Melvin Shafer Returned to EUB Church at Mynard

The annual conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Nebraska closed its meeting at York with the announcement of assignment of pastors and elective officers. The assignment of pastors was made by Bishop L. L. Baughman of Kansas City.

The residents of this section of Cass County are pleased with the return of Rev. Melvin Shafer as pastor of the Mynard church where he has served so faithfully and well. Rev. Shafer has done a great deal in keeping the church at its high standard and attracting many to the church.

Other sections of the county have also had return of pastors who have served their churches in an inspirational manner and added to the church growth. Rev. F. C. Ebinger was returned to the Elmwood and Murdock churches and Rev. O. W. Matzke to the Murdock Ebenezer Church. The Nehawka church will again have the services of Rev. Ivan Kilpatrick as supply pastor.

Dr. Glen Knosp of Elmwood has been named as representative of the Eastern District on the Council of Administration.

Harvey Meisingers Celebrate 25th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Meisinger were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday evening at 7:30.

A surprise reception was held at Holy Rosary Hall for sixty relatives and close friends. The event was planned by the couple's two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Meisinger and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Meisinger.

The evening was spent in playing cards and the pleasure of old friends and relatives renewing memories and events of the past years.

A buffet luncheon was served later in the evening. The decorations of the tables were carried out in silver and white. The traditional decorated cake of silver and white served as the centerpiece.

The couple received many beautiful gifts and cards which will be cherished in memory of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger were married at Holy Rosary church June 27, 1934. They attended a 7:30 morning mass on Saturday at the church, where they received the nuptial blessing of the church from Father Banach.

They have two sons, Kenneth V. who was married to Barbara Anderson Dec. 25, 1955, and they have two children, Kenneth Jr. and Katherine; and George R. Meisinger, the other son was married June 13 to Bernadine Lansink.

York Visitors In Cass County

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods of York are enjoying a visit with old time friends in Cass County where they lived many years. Mr. and Mrs. Woods were among the best known throughout the county for their activities in the community life.

For many years he was head of the County Fair and in the activities in and around Weeping Water. Later they moved to York where for many years he served as superintendent of the IOOF Home. Mr. Woods was successful in management of the Home until his resignation.

While here, they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jameson and Mrs. Nettie Hubbard, old neighbors at Weeping Water.

Williams-Snodgrass Ceremony At St. John's Church Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dean Snodgrass

Saint John the Baptist Church of Plattsmouth was the setting for the wedding June 27 of Miss Barbara Laurine Williams and Mr. Roger Dean Snodgrass, both of this city.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snodgrass.

The main altar of the church was decorated with bouquets of pink and white gladioli. The bride's brothers, Harold and Wayne Williams, lighted the candles on the altar and assisted at the ceremony.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph Pruzdzik, V.F., officiated at the nuptial mass at 12 noon, in the presence of 200 guests. Mrs. Roger Hild was organist and Mrs. John Bergmann was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gownned in full length nylon lace. The bouffant skirt was accented with a deep flounce of net ending in a chapel train. The scalloped neckline of the fitted bodice with cap sleeves was adorned with sequins. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap studded with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Barbara Krings was maid of honor, attired in lavender net. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. The Misses Carol Fisher and Betty Jo Williams, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Fisher was gownned in Nile green net and Miss Williams in pink net. They each carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Terry McBride was best man. Leroy Walton, Dan Covert and Lannie Ray Mendenhall ushered.

Valerie Williams was flower girl and Debbie and Robbie Snodgrass were ringbearers.

The bride's mother wore blue chiffon with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a beige two-piece dress with white accessories.

A dinner at 1 for the immediate families was held at Mack's Dining Room. Other relatives were feted at the bride's home with Mrs. Orval Kahler, Mrs. Edward Williams and Mrs. Hubert Buhman, aunts of the bride, as co-hostesses.

A reception was held at 2 p.m. at St. John's Auditorium. Mrs. John Blotzer and Miss Dixie Wurtelle took care of the gifts; Miss Beverly Michel poured punch, Miss Sharon Williams cut the cake, Mrs. Wanda Nickles poured coffee and Miss Judy Michel presided at the guest.

The couple will reside at 401 Avenue C, Plattsmouth.

Grant Scores Comedy Hit as Family Man

Cary Grant and sophisticated comedy have a great affinity for each other and comedy that is slanted toward family consumption is especially dear to him. The star has had some of his finest success in family comedies such as My Favorite Wife, The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer and Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House.

They are all about to be outdistanced with his current comedy hit, Houseboat, Paramount Technicolor and VistaVision gay romance which stars him with Sophia Loren and which plays at the Cass Theater July 5-7.

In Houseboat, Grant plays the father of three motherless children who hires Miss Loren as housekeeper....but Sophia can't cook—A-4.
