Mrs. Melvin E. Emeigh

Miss Fidler Weds Mr. Emeigh In Ceremony at Ashland

The First Congregational church at Ashland was the scene of the candlelight ceremony at which Miss Elaine Lois Fidler was united in marriage to Mr. Melvin Eugene Emeigh of Crete. The wedding took place June 7 at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Fidler of South Bend. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Emeigh of Crete.

The Rev. Z. M. Bressler of Ashland and Rev. Samuel Cushing of First Congregational in Hastings, officiated before an altar appointed with baskets of white gladioli and ivy.

Gary Alan Davis, cousin of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lee Davis of Lincoln, and Don Ivan Emeigh of Crete, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the four seven-branch candelabra, entwined with vines of ivy.

Playing nuptial music was Mrs. Snowden LaFon of Hastings. Soloist Donald E. Goodrich of Hastings sang during the double-ring ceremony.

Elinor Jessie Fidler of South Bend served her sister as maid of honor. Her street-length dress was of white nylon organza. The cap sleeve dress featured a V neckline edged with pleated taffeta. A floral design was applied to the bodice and extended on to the bouffant skirt. She wore matching white mitts and carried a crescent arrangement of cascades of ivy falling from a center of white gladioli. Her halo veil descended from a crown bow of white organza.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of French imported chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted bodice of lace over pure white satin featured a rounded neckline edged with hand-clipped lace embellished with iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls. The long sleeves of lace tapered to the traditional bridal points at the wrists. The voluminous skirt had delicate lace panels with hand-clipped scallops set about the entire skirt in redingote pattern. The underskirt was of cascades of net ruffles peeking through the lace panels. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and iridescence. She carried a white lace handkerchief with a white orchid centered among stephanotis and cascades of ivy.

Willis Farley of Crete served as best man. Ushers were Duane Dettelson of Hoskins, Lynn Handy of Percival and Galen Crowder of Crete, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Ken Pollard of Lincoln was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Robert Crumbliss of Edgar and Mrs. William Hemingway of Omaha assisted with the gifts.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Cutting the bridal cake was Mrs. John E. Fletcher of Omaha, assisted by Miss Pat Townsend of Omaha and Mrs. Donald Anderson of Hastings. Pouring coffee was Mrs. William Wright Young of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Myron Lehl of Newman Grove served the punch.

Assisting the guests were the Misses Carol Martin and Suzanne Hertel of Grand Island and Miss Carol Lowry of Doniphan.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Allenspark, Colo. For her traveling attire, the bride chose a multi-color two-piece dress with cherry pink accessories. After July 13, the Emeighs will be at home at 1215 1/2 West Sixth, Hastings.

LETTER BOX

To the Editor:

To Remember

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress approved a resolution that our flag be composed of 13 stripes, alternate red and white with 13 white stars in a blue field. By 1818, the flag had 15 stripes and 15 stars. In the same year, President Monroe signed a bill that retained the 13 stripes but added a star for each additional new state in the Union.

Our flag, to remember, is a symbol of freedom and to make us realize how much human sacrifice has gone into the winning of these freedoms.

On July 4 of this year, the 49th star was officially added and Alaska was welcomed in as a state.

The question rises whether all American flags will have to be replaced. From Velma Bieler, national director of the VFW Auxiliary, the answer is "no." As long as the 48-star flag is in good condition it may be used indefinitely. An American flag is never obsolete.

There are many activities built around the flag. Consider our meetings, parades, memorial services, for youth groups, schools and others.

Leperet-Wolever post and Auxiliary observed the patriotism and loyalty in Plattsmouth of some of the flags being displayed in the business and residential sections of the city on July 4.—A Leperet-Wolever Auxiliary member.

4-H News

The Bridle and Saddle 4-H Club held its meeting for June on the 14th at the Plattsmouth Sale Barn where we practiced with our horses. The meeting started at 6:30 p.m.

A wiener roast was held about 7:30. Members furnished their own picnic lunch.

A demonstration was given by Roxanne McGill on the proper way to saddle a horse. Another demonstration was given by Jerald Heim on the proper way to bridle a horse.

Remainder of the evening was spent practicing with our horses in the various classes that will be held at the County Fair this year.—Laurel Stoehr, reporter.
